

---- Evening Prayer 1 of Sunday is prayed on Saturday evening ----

Ordinary Time

There are two parts to “Ordinary Time” (or “Sundays of the Year” as they were labeled in the older Lectionary):

1. From after the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord until the day before Ash Wednesday
2. From the day after Pentecost Sunday through Saturday before the First Sunday of Advent

To order these Sundays correctly (“Ordinary” Time comes from the idea that “ordinal” numbers are used — 2nd, 3rd, 4th, etc. — to describe the Sundays), one needs to work from both ends. What would be the 1st Sunday in Ordinary Time is always replaced by the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord — that makes the weekdays that follow (Mon, Tues, Wed, Thu, Fri, Sat) the 1st Week in Ordinary Time. The next Sunday, then, is the 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. The Sundays are numbered consecutively, ending on the Sunday before Ash Wednesday. Because the date of Easter (and, of course, Ash Wednesday) changes each year, the number of Sundays in this Ordinary Time period varies from perhaps as few as five to as many as nine.
