Happening at the Lighthouse:

Palm Beach Focus Club Thanksgiving

Laughter, music, and gratitude filled the air as the Lighthouse's Palm Beach Focus Club celebrated Thanksgiving in style! With the beautiful harmonies of the Braille Club of Palm Beach's Choir and the hilarious performance by Comedian See No Evil, the morning was truly unforgettable.

A heartfelt thank you to the incredible Braille Club volunteers for preparing a delicious traditional Thanksgiving feast and for their generous help with serving and cleanup. We're also deeply grateful to our dedicated Lighthouse volunteers and staff — your hard work made this celebration possible.

This was our largest gathering yet, and it's inspiring to witness the growth of this amazing community. Seeing new friendships blossom and joy shared among so many warms our hearts.

Treasure Coast Thanksgiving Paint Party

This Thanksgiving season, our Treasure Coast Focus Club came together for a heartwarming paint party filled with laughter, creativity, and connection. We discovered that vision isn't a requirement for artistic expression — just a joyful spirit and good company.

Thanks to the incredible generosity of many supporters every attendee received all the essentials to prepare a delicious Thanksgiving dinner at home. It was a celebration of gratitude, inclusion, and the power of community.

A Heartfelt Start to the Season

This month, we're shining a spotlight on an extraordinary act of kindness within our Lighthouse community. Thanks to the dedication of Teacher of Blind Babies, Nicole Isaacson, 50 families will enjoy a full Thanksgiving meal—complete with all the fixings and a gift card for their turkey.

What began as one person's wish to help grew into a community-wide effort that produced 100 Thanksgiving bags, countless smiles, and a powerful reminder of how much can happen when people come together.
