Terms of release for the America 250 Youth Art Contest:

1. Grays Harbor Transit (GHT) is conducting this contest as a marketing campaign for their public transit services. GHT is a government agency and does not engage in commercial activity. GHT offers no financial compensation for the art submitted except for the contest prizes described in the Official Rules and Terms & Conditions.
2. Artist and their parent or guardian attest that the art submitted is their original work and hereby authorize GHT to use the work in all forms of media that may be displayed to the public. This authorization is extended to GHT for display before and regardless of final contest winner selection (such as a "gallery of contestants").
3. Artist agrees that artwork may be combined with other images, text, and graphics and may be cropped or modified. The Artist allows GHT to use their art in print and digital formats and any/all other artistic mediums.
4. Contest and all submissions are governed by the Official Rules and Terms & Conditions and any applicable local laws.
