MEANING BEHIND THE PALM LEAVES FOR PALM SUNDAY

This year, the Catholic Church will celebrate Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord on April 13. This is when the faithful attend Mass to have their palm leaves blessed. Afterwards, it is customary to place the palm leaves in a special place at home. Doing so serves as a reminder that Jesus reigns in their homes and that He is always welcome, but why use Palm leaves on Palm Sunday? Palm leaves remind us of the palm and olive branches that people from Jerusalem waved and placed on the ground to proclaim Jesus as king as he made his triumphant entry into that city. However, these will dry out and the appropriate thing to do is to take them to church in due time to have them properly burned and used on the following Ash Wednesday.

Palm leaves should not be seen as something magical. By being superstitious, we fail to observe the first commandment, “Thou shall not have strange Gods before me”. When the blessed palms dry up, they can be discarded like any other object, without fear that some evil or condemnation will befall the person; however, it is advisable to take them to the parish to use them properly.

Fr. Juan Zarate

SIGNIFICADO DE LAS PALMAS DEL DOMINGO DE RAMOS

Este 13 de abril la Iglesia católica celebra el Domingo de Ramos de la Pasión del Señor, que da inicio a la Sea-día en que los fieles suelen acudir al templo para bendecir sus ramos o palmas, que posteriormente acostumbran a colocar en un lugar privilegiado de su hogar, a fin de tener presente que Jesús reina en sus hogares y es siempre bienvenido en ellos. Pero ¿por qué se usan las palmas en Domingo de Ramos? Las palmas benditas nos recuerdan las palmas y ramos de olivo que los habitantes de Jerusalén sacu-dían y colocaban al paso de Jesús, para proclamarlo como Rey en su entrada triunfal a dicha ciudad. Sin embargo, estas se van secando al paso de los días, y lo apropiado es llevarlas a la Iglesia oportunamente para que sean quemadas y empleadas a manera de ceniza el siguiente Miércoles de Ceniza.

Las palmas benditas no deben ser vistas como cosa mágica, pues con la superstición se falta al primer mandamiento de la ley del Señor, que dice: “Amarás a Dios sobre todas las cosas”. Cuando las palmas benditas se secan, pueden ser desechadas como cualquier objeto, sin temor a que vaya a caer algún mal o condena sobre la persona; sin embargo, lo conveniente es llevarlas a la parroquia para darles el uso adecuado.
