HOW TO TELL MY DECISION IS GOD’S WILL

At times, decisions feel like a maze: changing jobs, starting a relationship, moving to a new city — and in the midst of so many options, the big question appears: What does God want for me?

It’s not about waiting for extraordinary signs from heaven, but about learning to recognize the subtle clues that guide each step. God’s will is not an act of blind obedience, but a loving companionship. The Lord gives us freedom and walks alongside our decisions.

God’s will is sometimes understood along the way, even through mistakes and falls. When we fail, God does not abandon us: He corrects us, helps us rise again, and regain what we had lost. For Him, discernment means aligning with what God wants, which at its core is always aimed at our well-being. God’s will is not a predetermined destiny nor a mandate that forces us to incomprehensively follow. Rather, it is a constant invitation to choose what is good and to live in harmony with God and those around us. To distinguish what is good and what is not, it is necessary to be open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit, who enlightens the way and accompanies us in every choice.

In short, God’s will is simple to express and profound to live: that we be happy, and that we achieve it by following the path of love.

Fr. Juan Zarate

CÓMO SABER SI MI DECISIÓN ES LA VOLUNTAD DE DIOS

En ocasiones, surgen decisiones que parecen un laberinto: cambiar de trabajo, iniciar una relación, mudarse de ciudad, y en medio de tantas opciones aparece la gran pregunta: ¿Qué quiere Dios para mí?

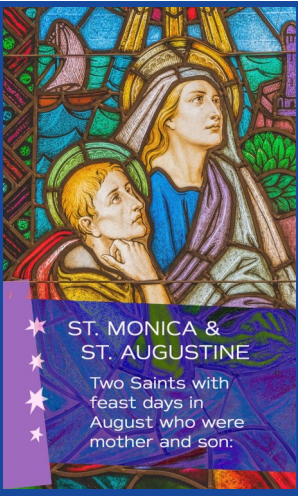

No se trata de esperar señales extraordinarias desde el cielo, sino de aprender a reconocer las pistas sutiles que guían cada paso. La voluntad de Dios no es un acto de obediencia ciega, sino un acompañamiento amoroso. El Señor nos da la libertad y va acompañando nuestras decisiones.

La voluntad de Dios a veces la entendemos en el camino, incluso a través de errores y caídas. Cuando nos equivocamos, Dios no nos abandona: nos corrige, nos ayuda a levantarnos y a reconquistar lo que habíamos perdido. Para Él, el discernimiento significa coincidir con lo que Dios quiere, que en el fondo siempre busca nuestro bien. La voluntad de Dios no es un destino predeterminado ni un mandato que obliga a seguir sin entender. Es más bien una invitación constante a elegir lo que es bueno y a vivir en armonía con Dios y con quienes nos rodean. Para reconocer lo que es bueno y lo que no lo es, es necesario abrirse a la guía del Espíritu Santo, que ilumina el camino y acompaña en cada elección.

En resumen, la voluntad de Dios es sencilla de expresar y profunda de vivir: Es que seamos felices, y que lo hagamos siguiendo el camino del amor.

Prayer for St. Monica’s Intercession | Oración inspirada por Sta. Mónica

Dear St. Monica, troubled wife and mother, many sorrows pierced your heart during your lifetime. Yet, you never despaired or lost faith. With confidence, persistence, and profound faith, you prayed daily for the conversion of your beloved husband, Patricius, and your beloved son, Augustine; your prayers were answered. Grant me that same fortitude, patience, and trust in the Lord.

Intercede for me, dear St. Monica, that God may favorably hear my plea for (Share your request...) and grant me the grace to accept His Will in all things, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

Oh Dios, que observaste las devotas lágrimas y ruegos de Santa Mónica y le concediste por escuchar sus rezos la conversión de su marido y el regreso penitente de su hijo, Agustín, concédenos la gracia de implorarte también con verdadero celo, para que así podamos obtener como ella, la salvación de nuestra alma y las almas de nuestros allegados. Por Cristo Nuestro Señor. Amén
