HOW TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF VACATIONS
TO BE A BETTER FAMILY

We are in the summer season, and for some, it is vacation time — an opportunity to strengthen both body and spirit. During this time of year, families have a chance to rest, spend more time together, but above all, they have the opportunity to grow and improve.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that “Rest opens to man, bound to the necessity of work, the perspective of a fuller freedom. Rest allows people to remember to re-experience God’s works, from Creation to Redemption, to acknowledge themselves as His handiwork, and give thanks to God for their life.

When Jesus visited the sisters Martha and Mary, the former wouldn’t stop working, while the latter sat at His feet to listen to his teachings. He told Mary that she had chosen the better part (Luke 10:38-42). Something very important that this passage teaches us is that one of the best ways to make good use of our time, is by dedicating it to our relationship with God, allowing Him to accompany and teach us to become better persons.

I propose that you set aside some time for personal reflection and evaluation. You can do this in a silent space, in a backyard, a park, near a lake, in prayer or before the Blessed Sacrament. Write down the most important ideas or goals in your life. You can do this alone or together with your respective families.

Fr. Juan Zarate

¿CÓMO APROVECHAR LAS VACACIONES
PARA SER UNA MEJOR FAMILIA?

Estamos en el verano y para algunos es periodo de vacaciones — una oportunidad para fortalecer el cuerpo y el espíritu. En esta época del año, las familias tienen la posibilidad de descansar, convivir más, pero sobre todo, tienen la oportunidad de crecer y mejorar.

El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica nos enseña que “El descanso abre al hombre, sujeto a la necesidad del trabajo, la perspectiva de una libertad más plena. El descanso permite a los hombres recordar y revivir las obras de Dios, desde la Creación hasta la Redención, reconocerse a sí mismos como obra suya, y dar gracias a Dios por su vida”.

Cuando Jesús visitó a las hermanas Martha y María; la primera no dejaba de trabajar y la segunda se sentó a los pies de Jesús para escuchar sus enseñanzas. Él le dice a María que ha escogido la mejor parte (Lucas 10, 38-42). Algo muy importante que nos enseña este pasaje es que una de las mejores formas de aprovechar nuestro tiempo es dedicándolo a nuestra relación con Dios y dejando que Él nos acompañe y nos enseñe a ser mejores personas.

Les propongo buscar un tiempo de reflexión y evaluación personal. Pueden realizarlo en un ambiente de silencio, en tu patio, en un parque, cerca de un lago, oración o frente al Santísimo y escribir las ideas o propósitos más importantes de sus respectivas vidas. Lo pueden hacer solos o junto con su familia.
