ANNUAL REPORT

available in advance of Parish Annual Meeting

All parishioners are encouraged to pick up a copy of our parish annual report this weekend at the entries to the church. This report provides information about our parish for the recently completed 2025-2026 fiscal year, and a bit of a look at this current fiscal year.

Please plan to attend the Parish Annual Meeting that will be held Wednesday, October 14, 2026, beginning with a potluck dinner at 5:30 pm,
followed by the meeting at approximately 6:00 pm.

For this dinner, the parish will provide the main course, and attendees are urged to bring a salad, other dish, or a dessert. We hope to see you there!

El REPORTE ANUAL estará disponible antes de la Reunión del Reporte Anual Parroquial

Animamos a todos nuestros feligreses a recoger una copia del reporte anual parroquial este fin de semana. Estará localizado por las entradas de la iglesia. Este reporte contiene información acerca del año fiscal 2025-2026 recientemente completado en nuestra parroquia, y ofrece un vistazo al año fiscal actual.

Planeen asistir a la Reunión Anual Parroquial que se llevará a cabo el miércoles, 14 de octubre, 2026.
Empezará a las 5:30 pm con una cena informal, seguida por la reunión a aproximadamente 6:00 pm.

La parroquia proveerá el platillo principal y los animamos a traer una ensalada, postre u otro platillo para compartir. ¡Los esperamos!

incident reporting system

Dear Parish Family,

The Most Holy Eucharist, the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ, is the source and summit of our Catholic Faith (cf. Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1324). When the Lord Jesus taught to his disciples the reality of the Eucharist by solemnly declaring, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you,” many of them murmured at it, took offense at Him, drew back and stopped following Him. The Eucharist is an incredible mystery, which “cannot be apprehended by the senses but only by faith, which rests upon divine authority” (Saint Thomas Aquinas). Indeed, at the conclusion of the Consecration, the priest solemnly declares, Mysterium Fidei (The Mystery of Faith).

In his profound and beautiful hymn Adoro te devote (I devoutly adore you), Saint Thomas Aquinas wrote, “On the cross only the divinity was hidden, But here the humanity is also hidden.” If a non-believer sees a crucifix, he/she would only see a man nailed to a cross. If a non-believer sees a consecrated Host, he/she would only see bread. However, we know that a great mystery is hidden: God was nailed to the Cross, and God is truly present in a consecrated Host. Although we believe this, it still remains a great mystery, and we need to be often reminded of this truth, lest we forget and no longer adore Him.

At Mass, the veil that is placed over the chalice “becomes a reminder that these mighty truths of our faith are often hidden from view” (adoremus.org). The Church teaches that “It is a praiseworthy practice for the chalice to be covered with a veil, which may be either of the color of the day or white” (GIRM, 118). Next time you come to Mass, look carefully at the chalice veil and ponder for a moment the great mystery of the Most Holy Eucharist. There is always more than the eyes can see or the mind can imagine. I pray that “Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have power to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fulness of God.” (Ephesians 3:17-19).

Blessed be Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar,
Fr. Juan Carlos Altamirano

Querida familia parroquial:

La Santísima Eucaristía – el Cuerpo, la Sangre, el Alma y la Divinidad de Jesucristo – es la fuente y el culmen de nuestra fe católica (cf. Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, 1324). Cuando el Señor Jesús enseñó a sus discípulos la realidad de la Eucaristía declarando solemnemente: «En verdad, en verdad os digo: si no coméis la carne del Hijo del Hombre y no bebéis su sangre, no tenéis vida en vosotros», muchos de ellos murmuraron, se sintieron ofendidos, se alejaron y dejaron de seguirle. La Eucaristía es un misterio increíble que «no puede ser captado por los sentidos, sino solo por la fe, la cual se apoya en la autoridad divina» (Santo Tomás de Aquino). De hecho, al concluir la Consagración, el sacerdote proclama solemnemente: Mysterium Fidei (El Misterio de la Fe).

En su profundo y hermoso himno Adoro te devote (Te adoro devotamente), Santo Tomás de Aquino escribió: «En la cruz estaba oculta solo la divinidad, pero aquí también está oculta la humanidad». Si una persona no creyente ve un crucifijo, solo verá a un hombre clavado en una cruz. Si una persona no creyente ve una Hostia consagrada, solo verá pan. Sin embargo, nosotros sabemos que hay un gran misterio oculto: Dios fue clavado en la Cruz y Dios está verdaderamente presente en la Hostia consagrada. Aunque creemos esto, sigue siendo un gran misterio, y necesitamos que se nos recuerde a menudo esta verdad para no olvidarla y dejar de adorarlo.

En la Misa, el velo que se coloca sobre el cáliz «nos recuerda que estas grandes verdades de nuestra fe a menudo permanecen ocultas a la vista» (adoremus.org). La Iglesia enseña que «es una práctica loable cubrir el cáliz con un velo, que puede ser del color del día o blanco» (IGMR, 118). La próxima vez que asista a Misa, observe atentamente el velo del cáliz y reflexione por un momento sobre el gran misterio de la Santísima Eucaristía. Siempre hay más de lo que los ojos pueden ver o la mente puede imaginar. Ruego que «Cristo habite por la fe en sus corazones; que, arraigados y cimentados en el amor, tengan poder para comprender con todos los santos cuál es la anchura, la longitud, la altura y la profundidad, y para conocer el amor de Cristo, que sobrepasa todo conocimiento, a fin de que sean llenos de toda la plenitud de Dios» (Efesios 3:17-19).

Bendito sea Jesús en el Santísimo Sacramento del Altar,
Padre Juan Carlos Altamirano

Thank you for supporting St. Philip the Apostle Parish.
Gracias por apoyar a su Parroquia de San Felipe el Apóstol.

THE SMALL BOOK FOR FAMILY FINANCES

In Spring of 2026, talks were given at Masses regarding the financial situation of our parish. Our parishioners responded by continuing to financially support our parish however they could. A parishioner suggested presenting information on family finances, especially budgeting our resources. Our Green Bay Diocese has put together The Small Book for Family Finances. The book is sponsored by the Catholic Foundation for the Diocese of Green Bay. Over the next several weeks, our bulletin will contain information from this book. It is our hope that we will then have a workshop on this booklet where participants will receive the full booklet, ask questions about the content, and have a discussion.

EL LIBRITO SOBRE LAS FINANZAS FAMILIARES

En la primavera de 2026, se ofrecieron algunas reflexiones durante las Misas sobre la situación financiera de nuestra parroquia. La respuesta de nuestros feligreses fue continuar dando su apoyo económico a nuestra parroquia de acuerdo a sus posibilidades. Un feligrés sugirió que se presentara información sobre las finanzas familiares, especialmente sobre cómo elaborar un presupuesto y administrar nuestros recursos. La Diócesis de Green Bay ha preparado El Librito sobre las Finanzas Familiares. Este librito es patrocinado por la Fundación Católica de la Diócesis de Green Bay. Durante las próximas semanas, nuestro boletín incluirá información tomada de este libro. Esperamos que, posteriormente, podamos ofrecer un taller sobre este folleto, en el cual los participantes recibirán el folleto completo, podrán hacer preguntas acerca del contenido y tendrán la oportunidad de dialogar para compartir ideas.

Many underprivileged children and families need a warm coat to get them through the cold winter months. In 2025, The Salvation Army of Greater Green Bay distributed 2,759 Coats to Children in Need. It is through donations from individuals, churches, businesses and foundations that we are able to offer this assistance to individuals and families in need.

 The 2026 Coats for Kid's collection dates: September 28th - October 29th.

Proko-Wall Funeral Home is once again proud to be a drop-off site for Coats for Kids. Bring your new or gently used coats to 1630 E. Mason St., Green Bay during the hours of 9am - 4pm Monday through Friday. There is a drop box in our lobby.
