Dear Parish Family,

Querida familia parroquial:

Throughout the centuries, the Church has always incorporated sacred hymns, beautiful vestments, and precious objects into the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass to express her love for the Lord Jesus. For instance, the hymn, "O Sacrament most holy, O Sacrament divine! All praise and all thanksgiving Be every moment thine" beautifully expresses a profound love, adoration, and believe in the Most Holy Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Another sign of love and devotion is the use of patens during the distribution of Holy Communion to the faithful. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal on paragraph 118 states, "The following are also to be prepared: ... the Communion-plate for the Communion of the faithful..." and the Instruction Redemptionis Sacramentum states, "The Communion-plate for the Communion of the faithful should be retained, so as to avoid to danger of the sacred host or some fragment of it falling" (93).

Moreover, "In the second century, while discussing how the Eucharist was celebrated at that time, Tertullian noted the need for extreme care to ensure that "not even the slightest particle" of the Communion host fell to the ground (De Oratione, 19). This is why the Communion-plate is used." (Liturgia Papal, Bandeja de Comuni3n). We are grateful to see this liturgical practice being developed particularly in our two parishes. This ancient gesture of expressing our love for the Most Holy Eucharist is also meant to strengthen our faith to lead us little by little to a greater conviction that indeed, "There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, He would have given it to us." (St. John Vianney).

"Lord Jesus Christ, you gave us the Eucharist as the memorial of your suffering and death. May our worship of this sacrament of your body and blood, help us to experience the salvation you won for us and the peace of the kingdom, where you live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever." (Prayer for Eucharistic Benediction).

Blessed be Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar,
Fr. Juan Carlos Altamirano

A lo largo de los siglos, la Iglesia siempre ha incorporado himnos sagrados, hermosos ornamentos y objetos preciosos al Santo Sacrificio de la Misa para expresar su amor por el Se1or Jes1s. Por ejemplo, el himno "¡Oh Sacramento santísimo, oh Sacramento divino! ¡Toda alabanza y toda acci3n de gracias sean tuyas en todo momento!" expresa bellamente un profundo amor, adoraci3n y fe en el Santísimo Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad de Jesucristo en la Eucaristía. Otro signo de amor y devoci3n es el uso de la patena durante la distribuci3n de la Sagrada Comuni3n a los fieles. La Instrucci3n General del Misal Romano, en el p1rrafo 118, establece: "Prep1rense tambi3n: ... la patena para la Comuni3n de los fieles...", y la Instrucci3n Redemptionis Sacramentum, afirma: "Debe conservarse el uso de la patena para la Comuni3n de los fieles, para evitar el peligro de que caiga la hostia sagrada o alg1n fragmento de la misma" (93).

Adem1s, "en el siglo II, al hablar de c3mo se celebraba la Eucaristía en aquel tiempo, Tertuliano se1alaba la necesidad de tener sumo cuidado para asegurar que 'ni siquiera la partícula m1s peque1a' de la hostia consagrada cayera al suelo (De Oratione, 19). Por esta raz3n se utiliza la patena" (Liturgia Papal, Bandeja de Comuni3n). Nos alegra ver que esta pr1ctica lit1rgica se est1 implementando, particularmente en nuestras dos parroquias. Este antiguo gesto de expresar nuestro amor por la Santísima Eucaristía tambi3n busca fortalecer nuestra fe, llev1ndonos poco a poco a una mayor convicci3n de que, en efecto, "No hay nada tan grande como la Eucaristía. Si Dios hubiera tenido algo m1s precioso, nos lo habría dado" (San Juan Vianney).

"Oh Dios, que en este admirable sacramento nos dejaste el memorial de t1 Pasi3n, te pedimos nos concedas venerar de tal modo los sagrados misterios de tu Cuerpo y de tu Sangre, que experimentemos constantemente el fruto de tu redenci3n. T1 que vives y reinas por los siglos de los siglos." (Oraci3n para la Bendici3n Eucarística).

Bendito sea Jes1s en el Santísimo Sacramento del Altar,
P. Juan Carlos Altamirano

Continuing the Mission | Continuemos la Misión

The Mission is Far from Over! In his last words before ascending to heaven, Jesus told us, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Mt 28:19), and for 2,000 years the Church has been at work in this task. Last week, we celebrated World Mission Sunday. We must never forget that 5.5 of the 8.1 billion people alive are not Christian, even now two millennia after Pentecost. The World Mission Sunday collection helps the Church to reach out to these brothers and sisters of ours who have yet to hear the message of Christ. Prior to 1908, the United States was considered missionary territory. The Church in America grew thanks to the support of World Mission Sunday, which built many of the first churches on American soil. Now, many years later, it's our turn to pay that generosity forward, as we care for the needs of our brothers and sisters across the globe. We are grateful for your support this October—and we invite you to continue the journey. To find out more about how to do so, please visit www.pontificalmissions.org.

¡La misión está lejos de haber terminado! En sus últimas palabras antes de ascender al cielo, Jesús nos dijo: «Vayan, pues, y hagan discípulos a todas las naciones» (Mt 28,19), y durante 2,000 años la Iglesia ha trabajado para cumplir esta misión. La semana pasada celebramos el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones. Nunca debemos olvidar que, incluso hoy, después de dos milenios desde Pentecostés, 5,500 millones de los 8,100 millones de personas que viven en el mundo no son cristianas. La colecta del Domingo Mundial de las Misiones ayuda a la Iglesia a acercarse a estos hermanos y hermanas nuestros que aún no han escuchado el mensaje de Cristo. Antes de 1908, los Estados Unidos eran considerados territorio de misión. La Iglesia en América creció gracias al apoyo recibido a través del Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, que ayudó a construir muchas de las primeras iglesias en suelo estadounidense. Ahora, muchos años después, nos corresponde a nosotros continuar esa generosidad, atendiendo las necesidades de nuestros hermanos y hermanas en todo el mundo. Agradecemos su apoyo durante este mes de octubre y los invitamos a continuar este camino misionero. Para conocer más sobre cómo seguir colaborando, visite www.pontificalmissions.org.
