Governor Profile:

Karen Melling

Date I first became a governor:

3rd October 2023

Type of governor:

Parent Governor

Appointed by:

Parents

Qualities, skills and experience:

I have worked for Wigan Council for 17 years predominantly in frontline child protection services. I am a registered social worker and currently work within the fostering team for Wigan Local Authority. I have knowledge of legislation and case law, have experience of working alongside a range of professionals including education, health.

I consider myself to be kind, approachable, hardworking and someone who enjoys tackling social issues.

Reason I became a governor:

I believe being a governor will provide me with an opportunity to give back to our community. I feel I bring a wealth of knowledge and ideas that could contribute to a child-centred approach within education with a focus on strategies to improve and manage behaviour, children's mental health and ways of working with children and families effectively.
