Pentecost

This Sunday we celebrate Pentecost, the great feast that marks the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and the birth of the Church.

In many ways, Pentecost is a feast of fire.

In the Scriptures, the Holy Spirit descends upon the disciples as tongues of fire. That fire is a sign of God's presence, His power, and His life dwelling within His people. The frightened disciples who once hid behind locked doors are transformed into courageous witnesses ready to proclaim Christ to the world.

The same Holy Spirit has been given to us through Baptism and Confirmation. Sometimes we forget that incredible truth. The Spirit of God truly dwells within us.

But like any flame, our spiritual life must be tended carefully. A fire that is neglected eventually grows weak. In the same way, when prayer is neglected and the sacraments are ignored, our faith can slowly become lukewarm.

Pentecost reminds us that the Christian life is not meant to be lived halfway. God desires to fill our hearts with His presence, His joy, His courage, and His peace.

This is why prayer is so important. Prayer keeps the flame alive. Even a few moments of sincere prayer each day can begin to transform our hearts and renew our relationship with God.

The sacrament of confession is also a powerful gift. Sin has a way of weighing us down and suffocating the spiritual life within us. In confession, the Lord removes those burdens and restores the freedom and peace that He desires for us.

As we celebrate Pentecost, let us pray for a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon our parish, our families, and our world. May the fire of God's love continue to burn brightly in our hearts, and may we never be afraid to live our faith with joy and conviction.

Come, Holy Spirit!

In Christ,

Fr. Paolo Dorrego

Pentecostés

Este domingo celebramos Pentecostés, la gran fiesta que conmemora la venida del Espíritu Santo sobre los Apóstoles y el nacimiento de la Iglesia.

En muchos sentidos, Pentecostés es una fiesta de fuego.

En las Escrituras, el Espíritu Santo desciende sobre los discípulos en forma de lenguas de fuego. Ese fuego es signo de la presencia de Dios, de su poder y de su vida habitando en su pueblo. Los discípulos, que antes estaban llenos de miedo y escondidos detrás de puertas cerradas, son transformados en testigos valientes dispuestos a anunciar a Cristo al mundo entero.

Ese mismo Espíritu Santo nos ha sido dado a nosotros en el Bautismo y la Confirmación. A veces olvidamos esa gran verdad: el Espíritu de Dios verdaderamente habita en nosotros. Pero, como toda llama, la vida espiritual necesita ser cuidada. Un fuego que se descuida poco a poco se apaga. De la misma manera, cuando descuidamos la oración y los sacramentos, nuestra fe puede volverse tibia y débil.

Pentecostés nos recuerda que la vida cristiana no está llamada a vivirse a medias. Dios desea llenar nuestro corazón con su presencia, su alegría, su fortaleza y su paz.

Por eso la oración es tan importante. La oración mantiene viva la llama. Incluso unos pocos minutos de oración sincera cada día pueden comenzar a transformar nuestro corazón y renovar nuestra relación con Dios.

El sacramento de la confesión también es un gran regalo. El pecado tiene la capacidad de sofocar la vida espiritual y robarnos la paz interior. En la confesión, el Señor quita esas cargas y restaura en nosotros la libertad y la paz que desea para sus hijos.

Al celebrar Pentecostés, pidamos una nueva efusión del Espíritu Santo sobre nuestra parroquia, nuestras familias y nuestro mundo. Que el fuego del amor de Dios siga ardiendo en nuestros corazones y que nunca tengamos miedo de vivir nuestra fe con alegría y convicción.

¡Ven, Espíritu Santo!

En Cristo,

P. Paolo Dorrego, PES
