

Anglia Lynn Smith
02/21/2023

On the 21nd of Feb, Anglia Lynn Smith passed into the arms of her beloved angles and god. She was a true Gypsy in her youth traveling here and there, she has had many adventures in her life. She lived and or traveled to many places all across the U.S. She visited California, Washington, Nevada, Hawaii, Arkansas, Georgia as well many other places, she settled down in Texas, she was a true Gypsy Soul and had a creative vibe in all her art and crafts. In her later years, she found her church then her path in life as well was involved in all kinds of charities and fundraisers. All the while fighting the good fight against breast and cervical cancer, it saddens us to say she has lost that battle.

She may be gone but she will never be forgotten. Angie leaves behind two children and 4 grandchildren , 2 step grandchildren by her loving son Christoher Lee Purdom of Troy Idaho (as well Wife Kerrie Jo Purdom) grandsons Xavier Jerry Lee Purdom, Ywatt-Yashtu Patrick Owen Purdom, Step Grand Son Suntop James Willam Dean Doherty. step grand daughter Ember Eunice Doherty, Her daughter Melissa Harrower of Anchorage Alaska and her two children. Her loving Sister Victoria Willmans, aunt Billie Doty as well many, many more surviving family members and loving close friends.

She is preceeded in death by her husband Richard Valerio, Mother Bobbie Stities, Father Paul Alvin Williams, cousin Robbin Simmons, cousin Carl Doty Jr., as well many others in the family that past these last 10 years.

Angie had a love of collecting, angle figurines, fairy's, dragon's to feed her imagintion on her creative side. May her spirit revel in the joy of heaven, may she be at peace.
