

Delfino Garcia Diaz
12/21/1950 – 01/09/2023

Delfino Garcia Diaz known to his family and friends as Del was born on December 21, 1950 in Beaver Dam, Wisconsin to Delfino and Inocencia Diaz. He entered eternal rest on January 9, 2023 in San Antonio, Texas at the age of 72. Delfino is survived by his wife, Martha Morales Diaz, whom he married on July 21, 1990. He is also survived by his sister Betty Young and brother Paul Diaz. Also, numerous nieces, nephews and Cousin's Olga Garcia and Roseanne Seale.

There were many things of importance to Del. First and far-most was his family and friends. Oh, how he loved his brother Paul, they always kept in close contact with one another. His sister Betty, whom he loved just as much was always there for him. He always looked forward to Betty for up-dates regarding the family. His niece is Pamela, husband (Wendell), and their daughters Lily and Ellie were always in close contact with Del. His niece Stacey (husband, Jeff), and their sons Owen and Ethan also loved Del very much and always brought a smile to his face. He loved talking to Arron (nephew) about his music. It gave Del great joy to hear his nephew, Seth talk about his band trip to Paris, France. He enjoyed hearing his nephew Owen talk about his music and even play the guitar for him. Del asked Ethan what he liked about school and he replied he liked recess the best. Del also talked to Lily about her big tuba and asked how someone so small could carry such a big instrument and produce the sound. She told him it took a lot of practice and working out to carry the tuba. Ellie always gave Del the biggest hugs she could and would try to squeeze him. He loved all his nieces and nephews very much.

I was feeling bad for Del because his desires to travel had not been fulfilled until God spoke to my heart and told me that his travels were just beginning. Thank you, Jesus!

Del was a gentle soul with a big heart. He enjoyed expressing himself by writing poems and got very good at it. Some of Del's other favorite pastimes was getting together with his friends and going to the movies where he would enjoy the latest action-packed film. Another thing that people will remember about Del was his love for talking and sharing his knowledge of the latest news; and his readiness to go anywhere. His most favorite pastime was going for a ride out in the country. We would travel to near-by towns and choose a new place to eat and enjoy the new surroundings.

Del was always generous with his time. He volunteered at church and was always ready to run an errand for me and my family. I so thank him for the many times he took my mom and sister for their appointments. I will forever be grateful for all the many ways my husband blessed me and my family. Del, I love you and look forward to seeing you on the other side.

We all take great comfort in knowing that he is not bound by any physical limitations -- now that he is with the Lord. Del, rest in peace, we will truly miss you.
