

In Loving Memory of

Margaret L. McGarvey

June 18, 1940 – October 11, 2023

Margaret (Peggy) Lillian McGarvey passed away on October 11, 2023 in Boerne, Texas after a full life of 83 years. Peggy was born in Hillsboro, Oregon to Clarence Lee and Mary (Yantti) Nelson on June 18, 1940. She grew up in Saco, Montana where the Nelsons owned and operated a general store, which had been in the family for years. She graduated high school in Saco and attended Kinman Business College in Spokane, Washington. She worked as a secretary all of her life, eventually settling into the legal field. She was passionate about her work and her family. Peggy loved to read and talk about books and never met a person who wasn't a friend. She touched the lives of many people with her friendliness, her wry humor, and her faith in God.

Peggy was preceded in death by her parents Lee and Mary and her brother Byron. She is survived by her husband of almost 40 years Patrick McGarvey, her children Patricia Uri, Jennifer Falck, Sean Swing, and Amy Jo Swing (Colleen), her 8 grandchildren, and her 10 great-grandchildren who are spread across the Globe from Norway and Minnesota to Mexico and Washington.
