It is with great sadness that the family of Justin Levi Hernandez announces his passing at the age of 41.

He is preceded in death by his loving grandparents, George W. and Angelita H. Hernandez.

He is survived by his parents John M. Hernandez and Christine Blair Hernandez; son, Ryan H. Hernandez of California; brother, Austin C. Hernandez; Sister, Valerie C. Hernandez; and numerous nieces and nephews, as well as aunts and uncles.

He was born in Denver, Colorado, but always considered himself a Texan. He looked forward to family gatherings and especially good barbecue. He enjoyed fishing the local lakes and rivers, but also the Texas gulf shores. He will be greatly missed by family who loved him dearly.
