

In Loving Memory of
Mark Wayne Stewart
October 21, 1960 – February 29, 2024

Mark Wayne Stewart was born in Sculthorpe, England, October 21, 1960 to Ellie and Phyllis (Gossen) Stewart. As the son of a career Airforce man, Mark lived in England, Germany, and North Dakota. When he himself joined the Airforce, he spent time in Alaska before settling in San Antonio, TX. There, in 1994, Mark met his soulmate, Mary (Burgener) Stewart, whom all her friends call Kathy—except for Mark, who called her Kat. They married in 1996.

Mark was a man of God. His Catholic faith was strong and central to his life. He loved the Holy Mass and never missed. He was also passionate about his country, politics, music (especially guitars), cars, Scotland, and IT. He spent his career as a civil servant working with computers.

Mark is preceded in death by his father. He is survived by his mother Phyllis Stewart, wife Kathy Stewart, son Ian (Brittany) Stewart, daughter Ainsley Stewart, step-sons Ryan (Jennifer) Huffman and Matthew (Cathryn) Huffman; grandchildren Jordan, Katie, Allie, Lana, Lina, Aaliyah, Marley, and Ellie; great-grandchildren Maci, Gabriel, Maggie, Ezekiel, and Daniel; brothers Roger (Brenda) Stewart and Sean (Karen) Stewart; and many nieces and nephews.
