His appreciation of photography came from his father, who was a professional photographer and owned a studio in Laredo prior to the Depression. He was also known to study the tail number of any B-52 he encountered, to see if it was "one of his" from his time in the Air Force, where he was part of squadrons tasked with maintaining B-52s.

He lived over 30 years in Dayton, Ohio and it was there that he joined the Knights of Columbus in 1973 (also following in his father's footsteps). He became a 4th degree knight, and over the years, held many offices, including Grand Knight, Faithful Navigator, State Deputy. In Ohio, he was part of the drill team, and they won multiple state championships. He moved back to Laredo after retiring, helping in care of his mother in her last years. In particular, he was a promotor of the Silver Rose. Each year, from early March through mid-December, Silver Roses are stewarded by Knights of Columbus councils along routes from Canada to Mexico. Every stop the Silver Rose makes throughout the pilgrimage is a rosary-centered occasion for Knights, parishioners and community members to pray for respect for life, for the spiritual renewal of each nation, and for the advancement of the message of Our Lady of Guadalupe.
