

Shannon Scott Smith

July 8, 1963 – September 23, 2023

Shannon Scott Smith, 60, of San Antonio, Texas, entered into heavenly rest on Saturday, September 23, 2023. Shannon was born in Tacoma, Washington in 1963 and graduated from Judson High School before lending his many talents to the restaurant, insurance, and military concessions industries. Shannon met the love of his life, Rebecca, in 2013. Excited to start their new lives together, the two were married on June 7, 2014. Alongside their daughters, Chloe and Eliana, they formed a beautiful family who enjoyed traveling, going to concerts, and watching sporting events together. Shannon had a soft spot for his dogs, Chloe Belle and Lydia, spoiling them like the valuable family members they are. Everyone who knew Shannon knew how much he loved his Lord and Savior, playing his guitar, songwriting, hitting the golf course, and loyally cheering on his beloved Dallas Cowboys – even if it caused a house divided with Rebecca's San Francisco 49ers. Fun loving, wildly hilarious, and always ready to crack a joke to make others smile, Shannon will also be remembered for his tremendous generosity, caring heart, giving spirit, and willingness to help those around him. We will miss him every day. Shannon's memory will live on in the hearts of all those who loved him. Shannon was preceded in death by his mother, Kathryn "Kitty" Martin, and his brother, Gerald "Gary" Smith, Jr., and is survived by his wife, Rebecca Smith, daughters, Chloe and Eliana, father, CCMSgt Gerald G. Smith, Sr., USAF, Ret. (Lorna), siblings, Pamela Monroe, Col Kevin Smith, USAF, Ret. (Sherry), Michele Griffin (Kenny), Justin Smith, Dr. Shanna Smith (Jake), Jeran Smith, best friend, Jerry Brockman (Janeane), and many other cherished family members, friends, and colleagues. It could be said that Shannon's parting message to all of us can be found in a song that he wrote titled, "Time Is So Precious." The chorus reads, "Time is so precious, life is not fair. You have to live with your decisions, so you better take care. Take care." Services to honor Shannon's life and legacy will be held on Monday, October 2, 2023, at Watershed Church located at 9315 Broadway, San Antonio, Texas. Visitation will be held from 12-2 p.m. and the funeral service will be held from 2-4 p.m. A celebration of life reception will be held immediately following at the Royal Ridge Recreational Club, 5859 Royal Ridge Dr., San Antonio, Texas.
