NOTES FROM NANCY:

Today we celebrate the 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time. As we “hear” the Beatitudes today we can reflect on the Responsorial Psalm and the Gospel.

Who are the “poor in “spirit”?

We might think money poor but that is not what Jesus was sharing. To be “poor in spirit” means to be humble and clean of heart. It is difficult to be humble. We must reach deep within ourselves and share our actions and words with Jesus – we must reconcile ourselves and draw near to Jesus offering our words and actions in prayer. Is it easy to be humble? We can not recognize it in our hearts- others can recognize it in us. Take time to reflect...
