Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 10: 16-17
 In the second reading, Paul connects sharing in the cup of blessing with participating in Christ's sacrifice and argues that the one bread that is broken bonds those who partake into one body.

NOTES FROM NANCY:

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – previously called Corpus Christi. Paul still tried to share the One Bread One Body concept to the Jewish people repeating Jesus’ words, “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.” Wow, pretty strong words for the people to comprehend! Today, some struggle to understand – it is a Mystery of the Church.

This past week I received a letter from Bishop Walkowiak appointing me to one more year as your Pastoral Director. I plan to retire on July 1, 2027. Let’s enjoy working together and serving God during the year to come!

CONGRATULATIONS!!!

Adan Medrano, Lillian Reynolds, Fr. Len, and Harper Duell

If you have noticed counting done at each Mass – I have been asked by my Canonical Supervisor to count participants. If you remember, we had diocesan wide meetings. The results are online. Ending Masses that do not have at least 100 participants were part of the plan. That is why the count is taking place. PLEASE plan to come to Church & be counted!
