FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PASTOR'S LETTER

FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

Like every year, this February 2nd we will celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the temple. According to the Law of Moses, the firstborn son belonged to the Lord and was destined for service in the temple. When later the descendants of Levi, the Levites, took over the temple service, this requirement disappeared, but the firstborn still had to be redeemed through an offering for the support of the priest. The elderly Simeon, guided by the Spirit, went to the Temple; and by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, he recognized Jesus as the Expected One, the light of the nations. A Light before which one must take a stand: "The true light came into the world, the light that enlightens every man... yet the world did not recognize him" (Jn 1:9-10). Simeon blesses the child's parents, but his words are addressed only to the mother. The child will be a sign of contradiction: Jesus is the light of the world, but he will be rejected; Jesus will be admired and loved, but he will be crucified; he will die and rise again. A path of contradiction that will mark the heart of his Mother. The prophetess Anna also arrives at the temple. From the evangelist's description, she, too, is a woman of God, elderly and a widow. Her gift of prophecy allows her to see what others struggle to see: the presence of God. She knows how to look beyond appearances and sees in the Child the Messiah awaited by the people. Simeon and Anna are described as "elderly." Generally, older people live on memories, on nostalgia for times past, while young people live on hope, looking to the future. In this case, we find ourselves before two elderly people who, in the presence of the Child, look ahead, they hope, they wonder. They sing of joy and hope. These details help us understand how young they are at heart, because their hearts are inhabited by God and his promises, and God does not disappoint. This is the day when candles are blessed in the Church and traditionally lit in celebration of the feast. Pope Saint John Paul II said: "The Christian traditions of East and West have intertwined, enriching the liturgy of this feast with a special procession in which the light of the candles, both large and small, is a symbol of Christ, the true Light who came to enlighten his people and all peoples." In his homily on the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, during the 20th World Day of Consecrated Life, Pope Francis told us: "In this dark time when it is difficult to see a light and we all feel precarious and fragile, the Feast of the Presentation in the Temple allows us to rediscover the tenacity and perseverance of Simeon. God comes every day to the temple of our lives and our history. He allows himself to be held in our arms and asks us to have the luminous eyes of Simeon, Anna, and the prophets. In our longing for the embraces given and received, let us remain vigilant sentinels, with the healthy restlessness of those who wait, not in vain, for the Lord." In the feast of the Presentation of the Lord, we are all involved, because those who accept to live the Gospel are and will be signs of contradiction. Taking a stand before the Lord Jesus, Light of the Gentiles, requires courage; but, above all, it demands being "of God," like Simeon and Anna. It also requires being aware that we will not always have everything clear, as happened to Joseph and Mary, who were astonished by what the elders told them; we know that Mary "kept all these things, pondering them in her heart."

FIVE MOUNTAINS CATHOLIC COMMUNITY ~ STEWARDSHIP

Living the Mass: The Eucharist We Celebrate Shapes the Life We Live A Parish Journey into the Eucharist

The Mass stands at the center of our Catholic life, yet its meaning can easily become familiar. Living the Mass is an eight-part parish series inviting us to rediscover the beauty, purpose, and mission of the Eucharist we celebrate each Sunday.

As we move from Ordinary Time into Lent, this series will guide us through the Mass step by step from God's call to gather, to His sending us forth. Drawing on Scripture and the Church's teaching, each reflection shows how the Mass forms us as disciples and stewards in daily life.

Written for the entire parish, this series invites us to see Sunday worship not as an obligation, but as a gift, an encounter with Christ meant to be lived beyond the church doors as we prepare for Holy Week.

Part I: We Are Gathered God Calls His People into Sacred Time

Every Sunday, before we choose a seat or open a hymnal, something holy has already begun. God has called His people together. The Mass does not begin with our words or actions; it begins with God's invitation. Week after week, the Lord draws us out of ordinary routines and into sacred time, where heaven and earth meet and where Christ gathers His Church around Himself.

From the beginning of salvation history, God has been the One who gathers. Through Moses He promised, "I will take you as my own people, and I will be your God" (Exodus 6:7). The psalmist echoes that joy centuries later: "I was glad when they said to me, 'Let us go to the house of the Lord'" (Psalm 122:1). When we walk through the doors of the church on Sunday, we are responding to that same loving call.

The entrance procession makes this mystery visible. As the priest and ministers move toward the altar, the Church shows us who we are: a pilgrim people on a journey together. The altar stands at the heart of this gathering. It is both the place of sacrifice and the table of the Lord. When the priest reverently kisses the altar, the Church honors Christ Himself, the living cornerstone upon whom we are built (cf. 1 Peter 2:6). Even our posture and silence at this moment teach us that we are standing on holy ground.

The opening greeting, "The Lord be with you", is far more than a polite exchange. It is a proclamation of God's living presence among His people. Our response, "And with your spirit," acknowledges the special grace given to the priest, who will lead us in prayer and offer the sacrifice in the person of Christ. Together, priest and people form one worshipping body, united in praise.

Very early in the Mass, the Church invites us to pause and look honestly at our hearts. In the Penitential Act, whether we pray the Confiteor or another form, we humbly admit that we have sinned and that we need God's mercy. This moment gently reminds us, adults and children alike, that we do not come to Mass because we are perfect. We come because we trust in God's forgiveness. As disciples, we learn that humility opens the door for grace.

Then, often with joyful music, the Church lifts her voice in the Gloria: "Glory to God in the highest." These ancient words echo the song of the angels at the birth of Jesus. Here, heaven and earth join in praise as we thank God for His goodness and mercy. Even our children learn, through this prayer, that praising God is not something we do only when life is easy, but a response of love to who God is.

The Opening Prayer, or Collect, gathers all the hopes, worries, joys, and intentions we bring with us and places them before the Father. Spoken by the priest on behalf of all, this prayer asks God to shape our hearts and prepare us for what lies ahead: listening to His Word and being nourished by the Eucharist.

Saint John Chrysostom once reminded the faithful that when the Church gathers for the Eucharist, we are not simply standing in a building, but in the presence of Christ who calls us His own. Each Sunday gathering is, therefore, a moment of discipleship. By choosing to come, by setting aside time, by entering prayerfully, we proclaim with our lives that God comes first.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches, "The Sunday celebration of the Lord's Day and his Eucharist is at the heart of the Church's life" (CCC 2177). To gather for Mass is not merely an obligation; it is a response of love to the God who gathers us, forgives us, and feeds us.

As we begin this journey of Living the Mass, we are invited to reflect on how we come to Sunday worship. Do we arrive rushed or ready? Distracted or attentive? Each week, God calls us again, patiently and lovingly, into His presence.

Lord God,
You call your people together as one family in Christ. Help us to respond generously to your invitation, to enter your house with humble hearts, and to grow as your disciples through the sacred mystery of the Mass.
Amen.

IN THE GOSPEL

UPDATE

With the release of the report that compiled the two exercises from late last Spring, “Who are we?” and the Demographic Survey, as a parish family we will prepare to complete Phase II by discerning our “Opportunities and Challenges.”

This next step in our Partners in the Gospel journey is a deeper dive into what it truly means to participate as a Catholic in our community.

Many of you may recall Bishop Shuster’s comments during the installation Mass for Fr. Temo. [<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=V2QWQI7tIDk&t=2114s>]

“My friends, my prayer for Partners in the Gospel is at this important time in the life of the church will help us to see the ministry we are called to have. Although this is a time for parishioners, councils and staff to figure out how to be one parish, I pray that you will think bigger than that because, parish is not just about churches in buildings. Canonically, a parish is a geographic boundary including every soul in it. Not just those who identify as Catholics.

I therefore pray that special attention is given to everyone in your parish boundary, not just Catholics, everyone. The revelation the gospel offers us is that every soul matters to God. Every soul in this new parish boundary should matter to us, especially those who live on the periphery of society as Pope Francis says so very well.” Bishop Schuster, Installation Mass for Fr. Temo Ramirez, St. John the Evangelist, November 16, 2024

Below is a list of ministries and services provided within by CCS our parish boundaries. Your discernment of our opportunities and challenges, may be assisted by realizing the needs that Catholic Community Services has already identified. How might we as a canonical parish enhance and support such ministries and services? Your answers are our opportunities. How might such activities challenge us as a parish family? Your awareness of the challenges such actions may create are answers to be considered.

Questions for discernment:

Question 1:

What challenges do you see exist in the wider, general community for all denominations?

Examples would be how do we make ourselves known to newcomers as we experience growth in our areas? What role should we play in assuring affordable housing and food security?

Question 2:

What challenges do you see that exist in the Five Mountain Catholic Community?

An example could be having several families with teenagers but not being able to hire a youth minister.

Question 3:

Having heard information from the community demographics report, what opportunities do you see in our Five Mountain Catholic Community and, in the wider community to more effectively serve and accompany others? Is there anybody that we can do a better job of reaching?

FEBRUARY INTERCESSION—FOR PRIESTS AND PASTORS

For all our priests, and in a special way for those who are pastoring our communities through the Partners in the Gospel process, that they may be blessed with the Spirit's gifts of wisdom, counsel, and fortitude. .
