PAROCHIAL VICAR'S LETTER

"My soul glorifies the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior."

Beloved in Christ,

I hope you are all doing well and are in good spirits. I'm grateful for your support and prayers in the last few months during my sick leave. The health scare was a humbling experience for me.

Thank you to the Medical Team for their help. I have more appreciation for the workers in the hospitals. I also learned that it is costly to be sick, so be sure to do everything you can not to get sick. Also, every day being on earth is a gift and a blessing. We don't deserve anything, but all is grace.

Knowing of your prayers gave me motivation and inspiration, because while lying in bed, I wanted to get better, so that I could return to serving the Lord and the Church. But I also learned it is crucial to take time for rest. Jesus said: "Come to me all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest."

On the one hand, it may feel a bit selfish and we may feel guilty for taking time for ourselves. But on the other hand, we would be no good to anyone, if we're not in good shape. It is summertime now, and how beautiful it is, the weather in the Pacific Northwest. A time for rest and renewal during these beautiful warm summer months, to spend more time outdoors, to soak in the Sun for Vitamin D, a time to travel and visit family and friends. I hope you take the time to enjoy this beautiful summer.

Praise the Lord for He is good!

Continued thoughts and prayers for you during this time of transition. We're grateful to Fr. Temo for his leadership, guidance and patience, and prayers for him in his new assignment in South Seattle. It's hard to say goodbye, but every transition is like a small death and resurrection. We welcome our new pastor, Fr. Jose. Also grateful to Fr Nick, he anointed me before my leave of Absence, (he must have the gift of healing).

Friends, let us look towards the future with hope. We are pioneers in these times, but we need to stick together, to pray for one another, to remain faithful to Christ, our Lord and our God.

Christ yesterday and today
The beginning and the end
The Alpha and the Omega,
All time belongs to him,
And through all the ages
To Him be glory and honor, forever and ever.

God's blessings always.
Fr. Vu

FIVE MOUNTAINS CATHOLIC COMMUNITY ~ STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP SERIES – WEEK 3 “All That I Have and Possess” The Gift of Talent

*“As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace.”
— 1 Peter 4:10*

Over the past two weeks, we have reflected on a simple but profound truth: everything is gift. Our lives, our faith, and even our time are entrusted to us by God.

This week, we turn our attention to another gift entrusted to our care: our talents.

God has blessed each person with unique abilities, experiences, passions, and opportunities. Some gifts are visible and public; others are quiet and known only to a few. Yet every gift has value in the Kingdom of God.

The Heart That Calls Us to Serve

*“There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord.”
— 1 Corinthians 12:4-5*

The Sacred Heart of Jesus reveals a love that is always poured out for others. Jesus taught, healed, listened, encouraged, forgave, and served. His life was a continual gift of Himself for the good of others.

As disciples consecrated to His Sacred Heart, we are called to do the same.

The gifts God has given us were never meant to be hidden or kept for ourselves alone. They are entrusted to us so that through them, Christ may continue His work in the world.

Reflection

Jesus reminds us:

“A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden.”
— Matthew 5:14

- Some are gifted in hospitality.
- Some teach.
- Some organize.
- Some pray faithfully for others.
- Some serve quietly behind the scenes.
- Some encourage, lead, build, repair, visit, cook, sing, welcome, or accompany those in need.

Every gift matters.

The question is not whether we have gifts to offer, but whether we are willing to place those gifts into the hands of Christ.

St. Ignatius prayed:

Take, Lord, receive all that I have and possess.

Our talents are included in that prayer.

When we offer our gifts back to God, stewardship becomes more than service, it becomes an act of love and gratitude flowing from the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Ponder

- What gifts has God entrusted to me?
- How am I using those gifts to serve others?
- Is God inviting me to share my talents in a new way?
- How can my gifts help build up my family, parish, and community?

Guided Prayer

Sacred Heart of Jesus,

You have blessed me with gifts beyond measure.

Help me to recognize the talents You have entrusted to me and give me the courage to use them generously in service to others.

May all I do bring glory to You. Amen.

Scripture for Prayer This Week

“As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another.”
— 1 Peter 4:10

“There are different forms of service but the same Lord.”
— 1 Corinthians 12:5

Practice for the Week

Take time this week to identify one gift or talent God has entrusted to you.

Ask yourself:

“Lord, how are You inviting me to use this gift for Your glory and for the service of others?”

Then take one small step in response.

Closing Prayer

Sacred Heart of Jesus,

help us to use our gifts generously in service to others.

Jesus, meek and humble of heart,

make our hearts like unto Thine. Amen.

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (O.C.I.A.)

is a journey of faith, for those who have wondered about what the Catholic Church teaches and professes. For those who are not baptized and wonder what being baptized means, and for those who have been baptized in other faith traditions and would like to explore what it means to be Catholic. RCIA is also for adult Catholics seeking to be confirmed in their faith. OCIA is perfect for those who have been away from the Church and are “coming home again”. Cradle Catholics are also invited to learn more and accompany those on their journey of faith.

Community Alert of Legal Impersonator

Ways to Identify a false document: "Multiple inconsistencies - including impossible date timelines, incorrect nationality and jurisdiction information, invalid address formatting, missing required licensing details, obvious design flaws, and information not typically found on attorney identification cards - strongly indicate that this ID is fraudulent."

Be Aware of Legal Assistance Scams

Please be aware of a scam targeting families with loved ones in immigration detention. A community member was contacted by someone claiming to be an attorney affiliated with Catholic Services USA. The caller already had personal information about her husband, including his name, date of birth, and place of birth, which made the situation appear legitimate.

The caller used pressure tactics, repeatedly called, created a sense of urgency, and demanded money in order to provide legal representation. After receiving an initial payment, the caller requested even more money and attempted to make the victim feel responsible for her husband's situation. The scam was later confirmed by a trusted source and many other scams have happened using the pretense of working with Catholic Services USA. If you receive a similar call, independently verify the attorney and organization before sending any money or sharing additional information. Please share this warning with others in the community. Please know that Catholic Services is a legitimate organization that offers multiple services. Be sure to visit them in person or on their verified website before accepting services from anyone claiming to work for them.
