Reflections on Today's Gospel.

What kind of future are you preparing for? Jesus encourages us to think -- to think about the consequences of our choices, especially the choices and decisions that will count not just for now but for eternity as well. The choices we make now will affect and shape our future, both our future on earth as well as in the life of the age to come. Jesus tells a simple story of two imperfect sons to illustrate the way of God's kingdom. The father amply provided for his sons food, lodging, and everything they needed. Everything the father had belonged to them as well. The father also rewarded his sons with excellent work in his own vineyard. He expected them to show him gratitude, loyalty, and honor by doing their fair share of the daily work. The "rebellious" son told his father to his face that he would not work for him. But afterwards he changed his mind and did what his father commanded him. The "good" son said he would work for his father, but didn't carry through. He did his own pleasure contrary to his father's will. Now who was really the good son? Both sons disobeyed their father; but one repented and then did what the father told him.

Jesus makes his point clear: Good intentions are not enough. And promises don't count unless they are performed. God wants to change our hearts so that we will show by our speech and by our actions that we respect his will and we are ready to do what he commands. God offers each of us the greatest treasure possible-- unending peace, joy, happiness, and life with him in his kingdom. We can lose that treasure if we refuse the grace God offers us to follow in his way of truth and righteousness.

Do you respect the will of your Father in heaven?

"Lord Jesus, change my heart that I may truly desire that which is pleasing to you.

Help me to respect your will and give me the strength, joy and perseverance to carry it out wholeheartedly."

October 8, 2023 ~ 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 5:1-7 The Lord seeks a harvest of justice!

Psalm 80 "The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel."

Phil 4:6-9 Dwell in thoughts of purity and justice and you will know peace.

Mt 21:33-43 "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone."

Isaiah begins the parable-telling today, establishing the vineyard as the setting we will revisit throughout the readings. From the first reading through the psalm and on to the Gospel, we are afforded the chance to consider the wonderful vineyard that God created for us and what has befallen it over the course of centuries. May God's word inspire us to bear good fruit in the vineyard that is our world.
