No Excuse Sunday

I found the below message in the social media. I am sharing this with you. This is called No Excuse Sunday. In order to make it possible for everyone to attend Church next week, we are planning a special No Excuse Sunday.

- 1-Cots will be placed in the vestibule for those who say, "Sunday is my only day for sleeping late."
- 2-Eye drops will be available for those whose eyes are tired from watching TV too late on Saturday night.
- 3-We will have steel helmets for those who believe the roof will cave in if they show up for Church.
- 4-Blankets will be furnished for those who complain that the Church is too cold. Fans will be on hand for those who say that the Church is too hot.
- 5-We will have hearing aids for those who say that the pastor or priests do not talk loud enough. There will be cotton for those who say that the pastor or priests talk too loud.
- 6-Scorecards will be available for those who wish to count the hypocrites.
- 7-We guarantee that some relatives will be present for those who like to go visiting on Sunday.
- 8-There will be TV dinners available for those who claim they cannot go to Church and cook dinner too.
- 9-One section of the Church will have some trees and grass for those who see God in nature, especially on the golf course.
- 10-The sanctuary will be decorated with 30 Christmas poinsettias and 30 Easter lilies to create a familiar environment for those who have never seen the Church without them.

We are the invited guests and if we do not show up, the Kingdom of Heaven will be given to someone else. So please come each Sunday as the invited guests of the King, God himself to be present in his kingdom.

October 22, 2023 ~ 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 45:1,4-6 We are to worship God alone, the God who calls us by name.

Psalms 96 "Give the Lord glory and honor."

1 Thes 1:1-5b We have received the gospel not only in word, but in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Mt 22:1-14 "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Cyrus, the great Persian king, did not know God. But Isaiah maintains that God called him by name. The people of Thessalonica did not know Christ. But Paul asserts that the Holy Spirit brought him and the gospel to them. Jesus proposes that we should repay to God what belongs to God. Whether we are conscious of it or not, all we have been given--including our very life--comes ultimately from God. May God's word remind us that we too belong to God.

Next weekend, we will unite with the global Church in celebrating

World Mission Sunday. This year, Pope Francis illuminates our path with the theme: "Hearts on fire, feet on the move."

As we prepare to observe this special day, we are reminded to ignite our hearts with Christ's love and extend that warmth to the most vulnerable corners of our world. Your fervent prayers and upcoming generosity in the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith will bolster the missionaries working in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and certain regions of Latin America and Europe. Let us come together to support them in their mission of love and service. Thank you!
