Jim Coke, Ex-President

Unit 505 Board of Directors

So why is Jim suddenly the ex-president?

The answer is term limits. Our Unit 505 Bylaws specify that a board member may only serve two consecutive two year terms. I first came on to the board in 2017 so I was term limited off the board at the end of 2020. But then you may wonder how did I keep acting as President? The answer is that an officer may continue serving “until their successors assume office”. There was no decisions that needed to be made by the board so it was decided to postpone the elections until we needed to meet. We needed to meet in June and in late June, it became possible to meet face to face. We met Monday, the 26th and the first order of business was the election of new officers. Congratulations to the following:

Katherine Ewing - returns as President for the remainder of 2021.

Barbara Somervill - returns as Vice President.

Diane Strategos - returns as Treasurer.

Dr. Josh Haskett - returns as Secretary.

I'm thrilled to have Katherine back as Unit 505 President!

OK, so why is the ex-president writing the President's message? Because time was so short from Monday's meeting and Katherine has a lot of other issues to cover so I'm covering the President's message for her this month.

There was one other notable decision - the board accepted my suggestion that we hold the September U505 sectional at the Sacramento Bridge Club on the 10th-12th of September. At this time, it appears that our September sectional may be the first tournament played in District 21 after the shutdown! Stay tuned for details.

Sacramento Bridge Center reopens Monday, July 5 and Folsom BC opens Tuesday, July 6. See the club websites or club Kibitzer pages for details.

In Memorium

Evan Evans

Passed away May 16. Evan didn't play much in recent years but is fondly remembered by some players who go back a few years.

There is a sweet story about his passing. Evan's health was declining so Katherine Ewing and Evan made it a habit to talk to each other every day and make sure everything was good. When Evan didn't respond on May 16, Katherine went to his home and found he had passed away. So lovely to be found by a friend.

Enlow Ose

We previously announced Enlow's passing but this is to inform you that there will be a celebration of Enlow's life. The bridge community is invited.
