E: admin@dasa.org.au

Open Monday through to Saturday night,
1pm to 9am (Sunday), closed Sunday night.

Walking beside people in the community,
to help free them from the effects of alcohol and other drug addictions.

DASA's Sobering up Shelter provides supervised accommodation and care as an alternative to the police cells for people 'apprehended without arrest' for being intoxicated in a public place or self-referrals in need of a safe place to sober up.

Staff offer the clients a safe and clean place to 'sober up' and when appropriate they offer brief intervention and referrals to our Outreach Team and Aranda House Therapeutic Community.

Shelter Information:

- Referrals are also accepted from other service providers, and we also encourage self-referral to the Shelter.
- SUS Bus pick up from Alice Springs Hospital - 10pm, 12am, 2am (Sunday)

Eligibility Criteria:

- People aged 17 and over - working, unemployed, Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander, non-Aboriginal regardless of (dis)ability, culture, sexual orientation or ability to afford services.
- Young people aged 14 to 18 who are referred by Alice Springs Youth Accommodation and Support Services (ASYASS)
- Straight, gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, inter-sex, or just not sure, you are ALL very welcome here.
