30th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Exiit qui seminat - "The sower goes out to sow"

When a pope dies (or in Pope Benedict XVI's case, stepped down), it's not unusual for his successor to complete written works begun, but not completed by the previous pontiff. Pope Francis published the encyclical Lumen Fidei, 'the Light of Faith' in 2013. Pope Francis said that the letter was written "with four hands" signifying that Pope Benedict had completed the majority of the encyclical with Pope Francis adding contributions to the work. In many ways, Pope Leo XIV's apostolic exhortation, Dilexi te (taken from the words of the Book of Revelation, "I have loved you"), a document on the obligation of all Christians to love the poor, is directly connected to Pope Francis. Pope Leo writes, "This declaration of love, taken from the Book of Revelation, reflects the inexhaustible mystery that Pope Francis reflected upon in the Encyclical Dilexit Nos on the human and divine love of the heart of Jesus Christ. There we saw how Jesus identified himself 'with the lowest ranks of society' and how, with his love poured out to the end, he confirms the dignity of every human being, especially when 'they are weak, scorned, or suffering.' As we contemplate Christ's love, 'we too are inspired to be more attentive to the sufferings and needs of others, and confirmed in our efforts to share in his work of liberation as instruments for the spread of his love'"(no. 2). Pope Francis was preparing this new document published by Pope Leo in the last few months of his life. Pope Leo literally makes Dilexi te his own and desires that all the faithful can realize "the close connection between Christ's love and his summons to care for the poor" (no. 3). There are five core themes of the document. First, poverty is more than 'bad luck' or individual misfortune. For many, being poor stems from injustice, exclusion and a loss of rights. Christian justice is that we, as a people of faith, give others that which they need, not only to survive, but to thrive, and even small acts of charity and unity with the poor can make a difference. Second, God entered into the world in poverty, and the incarnation, Jesus becoming one of us, shows not only His love but His solidarity with the poor. In addition, genuine faith must include mercy and justice. Third, Pope Francis, soon after his election as the successor of Peter, proclaimed, "How I would like a Church which is poor and for the poor!" The Church's identity is inseparable and united to our poor brothers and sisters. The life of the Church in service to those in need, how we love those who need it the most, is the backbone of the Church's credibility in the world. Fourth, the Church herself has been at the forefront of defending "the dignity of those on the margins of society" (no. 82). Over the past 150 years, the Church's Magisterium, her teaching office, has emphasized addressing poverty, injustice and exclusion throughout the world. Fifth, Pope Leo stresses that love for the poor is not optional, but rather integral to Christian discipleship. Such love calls for changes in our society on how we treat others and tangible acts of charity and kindness for the least of our brothers and sisters. The Church is constantly and spiritually renewed when we care for others in need. In closing, Pope Leo writes that, "Christian love breaks down every barrier, brings close those who were distant, unites strangers, and reconciles enemies. It spans chasms that are humanly impossible to bridge, and it penetrates to the most hidden crevices of society. By its very nature, Christian love is prophetic: it works miracles and knows no limits. It makes what was apparently impossible happen. Love is above all a way of looking at life and a way of living it. A Church that sets no limits to love, that knows no enemies to fight but only men and women to love, is the Church that the world needs today" (no. 120). Let us pray that through the example of our lives that we can be that type of Church to one another!

As the weather struggles to figure out what the temperature should be outside, I figured it's time for some soup! As I was cruising the internet, I came upon this beaut: "Marry Me Chicken Soup". It looks absolutely delicious. The only issue, as with most soups that I find appealing is that it requires heavy cream. It's like the universe is trying to say to me, "Father, you don't have ENOUGH fat in your diet. Here's some more!" I figure that I will make this soup eventually and, of course, misery loves company. So give it a shot and then call your cardiologist or start a cleanse soon after eating! God bless! <https://www.allrecipes.com/marry-me-chicken-soup-recipe-8421914>

Walking together in faith!

1st Reconciliation Parent Meeting Oct 27 - 7PM, STRS Hall

Many of our young children will soon begin preparing to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time. This is a beautiful Sacrament, instituted by Christ as a way for us to receive God's mercy and grace. It marks a very special time not only for our children, but also for their parents and families.

From the time your child was an infant, you have been teaching them how to make good choices and to recognize the difference between right and wrong. The preparation for First Reconciliation builds on that foundation in a new and meaningful way.

During our Parent Meeting, we will provide each family with a Preparation Packet that explains the how's, why's, and requirements of the Sacrament, along with details about our Family Component.

This is a mandatory meeting, where at least one parent must attend. We look forward to accompanying your family on this sacred journey of faith and forgiveness.

No Cost. We only ask that you bring SNACKS to share. Drinks will be provided. Call Faith Formation Office for more details @ 856-939-0592

Level 1 Confirmation Candidates

We joyfully welcome our newest Confirmation candidates as they begin their journey of faith toward receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation, the final step in their initiation into the Church.

This sacred time invites them to be strengthened by the gifts of the Holy Spirit and to deepen their relationship with God through prayer, preparation, service, and community.

As a parish family, we are here to guide, encourage, and support them as they embrace their call to live as active witnesses of Christ within our faith community.

HOLY CHILD PARISH, RUNNEMEDE, NJ

Teachable Moments Parish Office, 7PM Tues/Wed Evenings

October 28, Tuesday Evening Religion, the Bible and Tradition Presenter Fr Rob Sinatra

How do you define 'religion.' How is Sacred Scripture received, contemplated and put into effect in the life of the Church.

November 5, Wednesday Evening God and the Holy Trinity Presenter Deacon Dave

The doctrine of the Trinity is foundational to our Catholic faith. The question is how God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit relate to us and how we should relate to each.

November 12, Wednesday Evening Jesus, True God/True Man Presenter Joanna Schmidt

Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, took on human nature without ceasing to be divine. Come and hear more about God's love, the Father who gave his only Son and the Son who gave himself for us all.

ALL ARE WELCOME! This is open not only to parishioners, family members and friends!

Welcoming & Hospitality Committee Needs Help

This ministry is dedicated to fostering a warm and inclusive environment that strengthens the Body of Christ. We strive to help every parishioner recognize that they are a valued and vital part of Christ's living Church. Our goal is to help both new and longtime members grow more deeply connected to our parish family—spiritually and personally. We invite you to join us in this mission! One simple but meaningful way to serve is by helping us write cards of encouragement, congratulations, and Spiritual Birthday greetings. All supplies and sample messages will be provided. This ministry can be done from the comfort of your home—sharing Christ's love one card at a time.

In their stories, we discover that God's design for womanhood is not one-size-fits-all, but beautifully diverse. Their courage, faith, and accomplishments inspire us to trust in God's goodness no matter where our roads may lead. We hope that you will join us as we grow and support one another in faith. All Souls' Day

Mass of Remembrance

Holy Child Parish has a long tradition of offering a special Mass each November for our parishioners who have died during the past year. This is a beautiful way to remember your loved ones and to join with other families in praying for your beloved deceased. We know from Scripture that "...it is a good and holy thing to pray for the dead." Our hope is founded in the promise of eternal life, earned for us by Christ's death and Resurrection.

Saint Pope John Paul II tells us there is no better way to remember our loved ones than to join with the saints, in praying for those who await the Beatific vision, so join us as we present to the Father of all mercy our intentions for those who have died.
