Pease call the Parish Office to schedule a baptism or for more information.

While we as Catholics often think of St. Peter's Basilica in Rome as the center of the Church herself, but it's actually not considered a parish. It is the largest Catholic Church in the world and the site for major papal events, but the cathedral for the Archdiocese of Rome and the parish of the universal Church is actually St. John Lateran, a few minutes walk from the Colosseum. Consecrated in 324 AD, the *Archibasilica Sanctissimi Salvatoris ac Sancti Ioannis Baptistae et Ioannis Evangelistae ad Lateranum (the archbasilica's full and proper name) is the oldest public church in the city of Rome and the mother church of the Christian faithful. Originally a Roman fort established by the Emperor Septimius Severus, it was gifted to the Church by the Emperor Constantine after the Edict of Milan in 313 AD not only legalized Catholicism but made it the official religion of the Roman Empire. Previously the home of the Laterani family, the palace was converted to a church and eventually consecrated by Pope Sylvester I as a cathedral dedicated our Savior. The complex was the residence of the Holy Roman Pontiff for almost 1000 years, long before the Vatican became the home of the Holy Father. The current building is a result of extensive 17th-century renovations by Francesco Borromini, after centuries of damage from fires, earthquakes, and barbarian invasions. The inscription on the facade says: "Omnium urbis et orbis Ecclesiarum Mater et Caput" (The Mother of all the Churches of Rome and of the world). So why is this particular church so important that it's dedication is a feast day in the life of the Church? Regardless of its status as the oldest Christian church in Rome, St. John Lateran is the Holy Father's official cathedral. It represents the unity and authority of the universal Church and is the parish church of Catholics everywhere. As Pope Benedict XVI preached, "This Basilica is the spiritual home, of the people who are the Church." When the pope celebrates Mass at St. John Lateran, he does not do so as the head of the universal Church, but rather as the Bishop of Rome. Traditionally, on Holy Thursday, the pope celebrates the Mass of the Lord's Supper there with the clergy of the Archdiocese of Rome. The Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica (November 9) is celebrated throughout the world as a sign of unity with the Holy See. The only archbasilica in the world, St. John Lateran is the symbolic heart of the Roman Catholic Church. Let our prayers join with the universal Church as she prays: O God, who from living and chosen stones prepare an eternal dwelling for your majesty, increase in your Church the grace you have bestowed, so that by new growth your faithful people may build up the heavenly Jerusalem.

Roman stuffed dormice was a delicacy and a sign of both status and opulence during the time of Constantine. There are adaptations to the recipe allowing us to share in the spirit and the flavor of this ancient dish without having to eat a rodent. You can find a recipe here: <https://eatshistory.com/roman-stuffed-door mice-glis-glis/>

Practice will be, Saturday, Nov 29 @ 10AM in SMG Hall.

The practice should only be an hour (based on last year.)

Then on Saturday, Dec 7, you are asked to arrive by 9:30AM, giving us time to rehearse one more time prior to performing at 10:30AM.

Also, we are very excited that this year we have a 'real' Santa that will be arriving at 11:30AM in his own fire truck, that will stay on premise!

Creating a Family Advent Wreath Friday, Nov 21 @ 6:30PM, STRS Hall

The Advent Wreath gives us all a beautiful way to share the true meaning of Christmas. We are excited to invite your family to join us in rolling out your own Advent candles and creating a Family Advent Wreath together.

This hands-on activity is a special way to bring the whole family into the spirit of Advent. Each week, one person can light the candle, another can lead the prayer, and together you can reflect on the themes of HOPE, PEACE, JOY, and LOVE—sharing what they mean for your family's journey of faith!

You family MUST register for this event to ensure we have enough supplies for everyone. Please call the Faith Formation Office @ 856-939-0952 to register your family or drop off the below form.

Presenter: Fr Rob

"Holy Communion is the shortest and safest way to heaven. There are others: innocence, but that is for children; penance, but we are afraid of it. The surest, easiest, shortest way is the Eucharist." St Pius X Please come and join us as we explore the path to heaven through the most Blessed Eucharist.

No Session on November 26 due to Thanksgiving Holiday.

ALL ARE WELCOME! This is open not only to parishioners, family members and friends!

Women's Prayer Group

Next Gathering November 25 7PM in St Teresa School Hall

Our opening session went amazingly well! We were thrilled to welcome 24 women as we began our journey through the Matriarchs of the Bible, starting with Eve.

After Adam and Eve were sent out of the Garden, the story seems to spiral downward until God chooses to begin anew with Abraham and Sarah.

Did you know that the New Testament extols the faith of Sarah? We often focus so much on the journey of Abraham and Isaac that we miss the remarkable challenges Sarah faced; challenges that revealed her deep and growing faith. Join us as we explore how her experiences called for trust in God's promises—trust that ultimately brought laughter and joy into her life.

Our gathering is open to all women of every age. You do not need to be a parishioner to join us—family and friends are always welcome!

Advent Holy Hour for Liturgical Ministers Sat. December 13 - 9:30AM St Teresa Church

We are inviting all our Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Sacristans, Cantors, Altar Servers as well as family members to join us in prayer for a Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration.

Parish Advent Service Monday, December 15 – 7PM St Teresa Church

Please join us for a reflective homily by guest speaker Fr. Carlo Santa Maria as he leads us in reflecting on the call to stay alert and faithful as we await the coming of Jesus so that when He arrives, He may find us watchful in prayer and exhortation.
