"It's the most wonderful time of the year!" <https://youtu.be/Iz56prGBiS8?si=WXX2pouC26K69CNd>

A new school year is upon and all of the wonderful opportunities that come with it! While it is certainly sad to leave summer vacation behind, there is something to be said to both returning to the familiar confines of our school communities, as well as the excitement of new places and new chances to learn. The same can certainly be said about learning about our faith. For many of us, our religious formation ended either in 8th grade or our senior year in high school. Some of us went to Catholic universities and those of us "in the biz" have multiple degrees in theology. In addition, there are those who continuously seek to learn about the richness, beauty and depth of our Catholic faith by reading, attending conferences, seminars, retreats, etc. Starting in September, our parish will be one of two sites hosting the Pillars of Faith, a continuation of the School of Discipleship and the Catechetical Institute brought to the Diocese of Camden by Bishop Williams. Pillars focuses on the 4 different sections of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the foundations (or pillars) of our faith: the Creed, the Sacraments and Liturgical Life of the Church, Morality and Virtue, and Prayer. This is just the start of our diocese entering a whole new world in terms of evangelizing and spreading the Gospel! As you may well know, the parish is continuing the next round of our Forming Intentional Disciples Book Club by Dr. Sherry Weddell. Our parish will also be starting a Live Stream on Facebook called, "Plumbing the Depths", conversations about a variety of faith topics and current events that impact our lives as disciples (more on that in the weeks to come). So school is now in session! Growing and learning about our faith is important because it deepens our relationship with God, strengthens our belief in Him, and helps form our conscience so as to guide our choices. As we continue to ask questions, reflect, and learn, our faith can become a meaningful source of wisdom, purpose, and connection with Christ, His Church and one another.

The end of August and the beginning of September can be hectic in terms of food preparation. I bumped into this One Pan Lemon Pepper Yogurt Chicken and Rice recipe that looks REALLY good. Give it a try! <https://www.halfbakedharvest.com/lemon-pepper-yogurt-chicken/>

Serving with Purpose Finding Christ through St. Vincent de Paul

Sometimes God places an opportunity before us long before we realize where it will lead. My name is Sue Montchyk and I first became involved with the St. Vincent de Paul Society (SVDP), I really did not know where the journey would take me. I had heard Clare speak about the ministry during Mass, and afterward I approached her to learn a little more. It was a simple conversation, but looking back, I can see how God used that moment to open a new door in my life. At the time, I was beginning to cut back my hours at work and thinking about retirement. I knew I wanted that next chapter of my life to be about more than finding things to keep me busy. I wanted to have a purpose.

I found part of that purpose through SVDP

Beginning with Something Simple

My involvement began in a very ordinary way. I attended a meeting, learned about the food pantry and the assistance SVDP provides to people in our community, and started helping stock shelves and pack bags for our Wednesday food distribution. As the weeks went by, I began recognizing some of the people who came to us for assistance. Seeing familiar faces made me realize that the need in our community was not abstract, it was real, ongoing, and often much closer to home than we might imagine.

That is one of the lessons this ministry has taught me, that we never really know what another person or family may be going through. Our role is to listen, offer guidance, and connect someone with the resources they need. Whatever the situation, we want each person to know that they will be treated with dignity, compassion, and respect.

More than Providing Assistance

After completing the necessary fingerprinting and Safe Environment training, I began answering our hotline calls. I started with Thursdays and eventually added Sundays. Those conversations have helped me understand another important part of this ministry: sometimes the first gift we give another person is simply our willingness to listen. People may share circumstances that are difficult or even embarrassing for them to talk about. By the time someone reaches out for help, they may already feel vulnerable. Their trust is something we take very seriously, offering a confidential place where people can explain their circumstances and know that someone will listen without judgment.

And we never do this work alone. Our members communicate with one another, share information, pray, and work together to determine how we can best help. When we meet with someone personally, we go in pairs. There is always another Vincentian to turn to for guidance and support. That sense of community is one of the things I value most about SVDP.

There Is a Place for Everyone

People sometimes hesitate to volunteer because they are afraid they do not have enough time. My experience has been very different. You do what you can, when you can. I began by helping in the food pantry just two Wednesdays each month. When my work schedule made that more difficult, I found another way to serve by answering hotline calls on days that worked for me.

There are many ways to help, and every contribution matters. No one person has to do everything. Instead, each person brings his or her own gifts, time, experiences, and abilities, and together those individual contributions become something much greater.

This is especially important as we look toward the future of SVDP. Many of our members have served faithfully for years. We need new people who are willing to join us, not to replace but to help continue our ministry. New members bring new ideas, fresh energy, different experiences, and gifts that can strengthen the ministry. Sometimes all it takes is a willingness to say, "I can help."

Teaching Our Children to Serve

Some of my favorite moments with SVDP involve our children and families. The assistance provided to families at Thanksgiving and Christmas is particularly meaningful, but I also love watching the children participate in our FaithFULL Food Drive. They are excited about their jobs and proud to be helping others. It is even more meaningful when parents, grandparents, and children serve together. Those experiences remind me that Christian service does more than meet an immediate need. It teaches the next generation what it means to notice another person, to care, and to respond. Children learn compassion by seeing compassion lived. When families serve together, we are helping our children understand that faith is not something reserved for Sunday Mass. Faith is something we carry into our homes, our neighborhoods, and our relationships with one another.

Finding Christ in One Another

Perhaps the greatest gift SVDP has given me is the way it has strengthened my own faith. We begin and end our gatherings and activities with prayer. It may seem like a simple practice, but it has changed the way I approach situations in my own life. It reminds me to bring God into the moment to ask for His guidance when I do not know what to do and to remember to thank Him for the blessings I receive.

Through this ministry, I have come to understand more deeply that life is about people and community, and there is no better way to strengthen those connections than through Christ. We often think that when we volunteer, we are the ones doing the giving. But service has a way of changing the person who serves as well. The people we encounter teach us about gratitude, perseverance, humility, compassion, and trust. They remind us that Christ does not always come to us in the ways we expect. Sometimes He comes through the person asking for a bag of groceries. Sometimes He comes through a family facing an unexpected hardship. And sometimes He comes through the fellow volunteer standing beside us saying, "We will figure this out together."

An Invitation to Give it a Try

For anyone who has thought about becoming involved with SVDP but is unsure whether it is right for them, my advice is simple, just give it a try! You do not have to know exactly what you can offer. You do not need unlimited free time ...and you do not have to have all the answers. Simply begin.

What keeps me coming back is both the people we serve and the people I have the privilege of serving alongside. We support one another, communicate with one another, pray together, and share a common desire to help our neighbors. And when you see the gratitude of someone who has been struggling, you begin to understand that even a small amount of your time can make a meaningful difference.

Looking back, I could not have known where that simple conversation with Clare would have led me. SVDP gave me an opportunity to serve with purpose. However, along the way, I discovered something even greater. When we make ourselves available to others, God can use our time, our talents, and even our smallest acts of kindness to build community, strengthen faith, and remind us of something we can too easily forget: Christ is present in the people right in front of us.

Maybe God Is Inviting You to 'Give It a Try'

OCIA Faith Supporters

Companion on the Journey

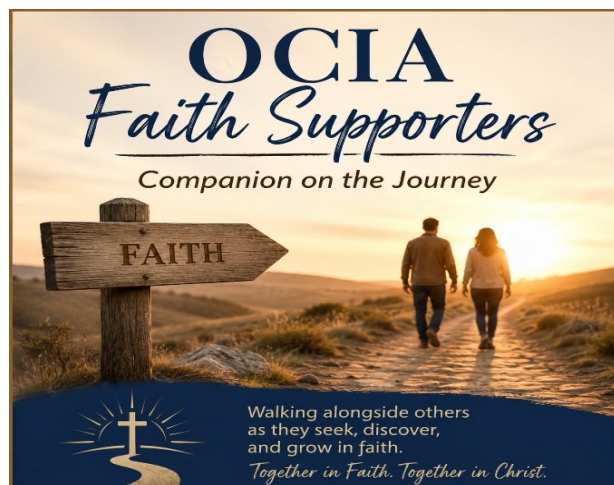

Would you prayerfully consider sharing your journey of faith by becoming a Faith Supporter for an adult preparing to enter the Catholic Church through the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA)?

As a Faith Supporter, you are not expected to have all the answers. Your most important role is simply to be a friend and companion, someone who listens, prays, encourages, and helps another person feel at home in our parish community.

Can you pray with a catechumen? Join them at a few parish events so they can experience how Catholics live, pray, and grow in faith together? Your welcoming presence can make all the difference.

Many of our recent Faith Supporters have discovered that accompanying someone else has enriched and deepened their own relationship with Christ. As one supporter shared, "I find that I am learning and growing as much as they are."

A Faith Supporter Discernment Night will be held in September to explain the role, answer questions, and help you discern whether God may be calling you to this ministry. If you have a heart for walking with others on their faith journey, we invite you to prayerfully consider becoming a Faith Supporter. Sometimes the greatest gift we can offer is simply our presence. For more information call our Parish Life Office @ 856-939-0592.

Religious Education Sessions Begin Sunday, Sept 13 ARE YOU REGISTERED!

There is Always a Place to Begin & We are Here to Help!

Is Your Child Up to Date with the Sacraments?

Parents, It's Never too Late to Continue the Journey as Well!

We are very excited to share that throughout the summer, we have had the privilege of working with twelve young people, from 4th grade through high school, helping them continue their faith journey as they prepare to receive the Sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

And alongside them, something else wonderful has been happening! Several of our parish families have been reaching out to friends and neighbors and doing something very simply, inviting them to come to Mass. Their enthusiasm and willingness to share their faith have been contagious! Through these personal invitations, we are delighted to welcome three new families to our parish and Religious Education and Sacramental Program, with children ranging from 2nd through 7th grade.

But the journey doesn't stop with the children. Two parents will also be preparing to complete their Sacraments alongside their children! What a beautiful reminder that faith formation isn't just for our children. We are never too old, never too late, and never too far along in life to take the next step in our relationship with God. Sometimes evangelization really is as simple as an invitation, 'Come to Mass with us.' And sometimes that one invitation can open the door for an entire family to discover or rediscover their Catholic faith.

Does your child need to receive a Sacrament? Do you have an older child who has not yet received Baptism, First Holy Communion, or Confirmation? If you have a child in 1st through 8th grade who has not yet received one or more of these Sacraments, we are here to help. Whether your family is just beginning your journey in the Catholic Church, returning to the practice of the faith, or your child's sacramental preparation has simply been delayed, you are welcome here. Don't let your child's age or grade keep you from reaching out. We will meet your family where you are, answer your questions, and help determine the best path forward for your child and your family. It's never too late to begin the journey. Sometimes all it takes is that first step. For more information, please contact the Faith Formation Office @ 856-939-0592. We would be blessed to walk this journey of faith with you and your family.

After that, we will return to our regular schedule of the first and third Thursdays of each month.

Can't join us on Thursday mornings? You can still participate by making sandwiches at home with your family. Simply drop off your sandwiches between 11:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon at Saint Maria Goretti Parish Hall. Please place each uncut sandwich in an individual zip-top bag before returning them to the original bread sleeve. Thank you for your continued generosity and compassion for those in need. Everyone is welcome to be part of this wonderful ministry!
