Exiit qui seminat - "The sower goes out to sow"

This week we're delving deeper into the 5th principle of the 2nd Vatican Council as stated by Pope Leo XIV: loving care for the least and the rejected. It's the essential quality of the Christian life to demonstrate Gospel charity and missionary zeal. We can't be the Church without it, because it's how we tangibly express our faith and the Lord's Gospel in our everyday lives, as well as enter into His divine mystery. As Pope Francis wrote in Evangelii Gaudium ("The Joy of the Gospel") in 2013, "Jesus' whole life, his way of dealing with the poor, his actions, his integrity, his simple daily acts of generosity, and finally his complete self-giving, is precious and reveals the mystery of his divine life. Whenever we encounter this anew, we become convinced that it is exactly what others need, even though they may not recognize it: 'What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you' (Acts 17:23). Sometimes we lose our enthusiasm for mission because we forget that the Gospel responds to our deepest needs, since we were created for what the Gospel offers us: friendship with Jesus and love of our brothers and sisters" (no. 265). Christian charity and care for our brothers and sisters in need is not complicated. By paying attention to what is right in front of us, by being attentive to the world around us, we can see and hear what is lacking in the lives of others and give them that which they need, not just to survive but to thrive. For example, if we have a family member or a friend that we know fairly well and spend quality time with them, we can easily discern what is lacking in their lives and what could really help them. On a much broader level, true Christian love is also shown most clearly, not in how we treat the powerful or influential, but in how we serve and stand beside those whom the world considers "least," unwanted, or expendable. As our Lord says clearly in Matthew 25: "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." Living in a world that is fueled by concerns regarding immigration and the poor, in addition to the marginalized among us, we are called to recognize that each and every one of us has dignity and worth in the eyes of God. "Today in many places we hear a call for greater security. But until exclusion and inequality in society and between peoples are reversed, it will be impossible to eliminate violence. The poor and the poorer peoples are accused of violence, yet without equal opportunities the different forms of aggression and conflict will find a fertile terrain for growth and eventually explode. When a society – whether local, national or global – is willing to leave a part of itself on the fringes, no political programmes or resources spent on law enforcement or surveillance systems can indefinitely guarantee tranquility. This is not the case simply because inequality provokes a violent reaction from those excluded from the system, but because the socioeconomic system is unjust at its root. Just as goodness tends to spread, the toleration of evil, which is injustice, tends to expand its baneful influence and quietly to undermine any political and social system, no matter how solid it may appear" (Evangelii Gaudium no. 59). It is our obligation as Catholic Christians to spread the goodness of the Gospel, to care for our brothers and sisters and to speak out against the evils of our age. With all this in mind, what are the needs of those around us? How can we help them without enabling them or preventing them from growth? On a macro level, how can we pray and act for those poor souls who are exploited and threatened in our community, our country and our world? Let us continue to pray to Christ the Good Shepherd for His intervention that just as He laid down His life for His sheep, we are able to do the same.

Putting a twist on our theme, I found a recipe for a Poor Man's Meal. As you may be aware, 'poor man's' recipes are quick and easy meals made affordable ingredients or making best use of some of the things that you have lying around. I have not personally tried this yet, but let me know what you think: <https://theskinnyishdish.com/poor-mans-meal/>

Sacramental Parent Meeting For our LV1 Confirmation Prep

THIS Monday, Sept 29

7PM @ St Teresa School Hall

As parents, you play the most important role in your child's sacramental preparation. You are their first and most influential teachers in the faith, guiding them as they grow closer to Christ. Your active interest and involvement help shape how your son or daughter understands both the sacrament and the Christian life itself, making this a truly meaningful and fruitful experience. This is a mandatory parent meeting. At least one parent needs to be in attendance.

LV2 Confirmation Candidate Session

Monday, October 6, 6:30PM @ STRS Hall

Doors open at 6:15PM

Sessions run from 6:30 to 7:30PM

LV1 Inscription Retreat

Saturday, October 18

12:30PM @ STRS Hall

Ending with 4:30PM Mass

Inscription Retreat offers new Confirmation candidates a meaningful opportunity to step away from their busy routines and focus on God's personal invitation to them. Throughout the retreat, candidates will be guided to reflect on important questions such as: Where is God in my life? How can I become a more active member of the Catholic Church?

Through engaging activities, candidates will begin to deepen their understanding of the role of the Holy Spirit in their lives and discover the true meaning of being confirmed in the faith.

Mass of Inscription

The Mass of Inscription is a special ceremony that prepares our young people and their families for the steps leading to the Sacrament of Confirmation.

During this celebration, the candidates are formally presented to the pastor and to the parish community as willing participants, publicly saying "yes" to taking the next steps in their journey of initiation and growth in faith.

*Welcoming &
Hospitality Ministry
Gathering
Monday, October 13
7PM in the Parish Office*

This ministry is dedicated to creating a warm and inclusive environment that builds up the Body of Christ. We do this by helping every parishioner discover that they are an important part of Christ's living Church. Our goal is to connect both new and current parishioners more deeply with our parish family—spiritually and personally. How??

Personal Outreach: Would you be willing to make welcome calls to new parishioners? Could you also help by sending notes or cards of encouragement to our First Communion, Confirmation, and OCIA candidates? Your simple gesture can mean so much.

Community Building: Are you available on the 1st Sunday of the month to help foster connections between new and long-time parishioners? By being present and extending a warm welcome, you can help new members recognize that they are an important part of our parish family and that their gifts and contributions are truly valued.

Wellness Check: Our goal is to stay closely connected as a parish community. If we notice that someone has not been at Mass for a while or hear that a parishioner may be ill, we are looking for volunteers who can reach out with a caring phone call to see how they are doing.

These are just a few of the initiatives we will be bringing to fruition over the next few months. If you would like to help in any way, please join us at our next gathering. For any questions, feel free to contact the Faith Formation Office at 856-939-0592.

If you feel that you have a burning desire to help people get closer to Christ and to know the Truth, then perhaps you have a vocation to the priesthood. If you feel like God is calling you, call our vocations director Father Adam Cichoski at:

Women's Prayer Group
Next Gathering October 28
7PM in St Teresa School Hall

Thank you for your understanding as we needed to postpone our Women's Prayer Group until October. We are especially excited to welcome many new members when we begin!

This season, we will be taking a walk with the Brave and Beloved women of the Bible. God uses women from all walks of life to accomplish His work in the world. In their stories, we discover that God's design for womanhood is not one-size-fits-all, but beautifully diverse. Their courage, faith, and accomplishments inspire us to trust in God's goodness no matter where our roads may lead.

Our gathering is open to all women of every age. You do not need to be a parishioner to join us—family and friends are always welcome!

A celebration of Art!

St Teresa Regional School had the pleasure of installing 3 new art pieces into the school this month!

This painting of Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, also known as "The Little Flower", was given to St. Gabriel School in 1912 and was enshrined on the 2nd floor of the school. Students had a devotion to St. Teresa and believed that their prayers would be heard if they received a rose under any form. It had been in storage since 2021 and now resides here.

This statue came from the Gillet Convent at Immaculata College.

Fr. Rob, blessed our 2 new art pieces that have been installed in our school. Students PreK-3 through 8th grade gathered for the blessings and joined in prayer with these new pieces.

Thank you!

The Faulty and students of St Teresa Regional School would like to say thank you to an anonymous parishioner and artist for their generous donation of this beautiful painting of our Blessed Mother with Jesus as a little child.
