Exiit qui seminat - "The sower goes out to sow"

This week we focus on the 3rd principle of the 2nd Vatican Council emphasized by Pope Leo XIV: growth in collegiality and synodality. So what do each of these things mean? The Catholic Encyclopedia (yes, there is such a thing) states that a college "originally signified a community, a corporation, an organized society, a body of colleagues, or a society of persons engaged in some common pursuit ... in other collegia persons associated together for some special religious worship, or for the purpose of mutual assistance." In Church lingo, all of the bishops in the world (including the Holy Father) are grouped together as the 'College of Bishops'. A synod is defined as "a general term for ecclesiastical gatherings under hierarchical authority, for the discussion and decision of matters relating to faith, morals, or discipline." Synods don't only include bishops, but can include other members of the Christian faithful. Put together, the concept of "growth in collegiality and synodality" means all of the bishops working together as a part of the Church hierarchy in conjunction with all of her members working together for the good of the Church and the spread of the Gospel. That's a pretty hefty task! Pope Francis began this "process", for lack of a better term, when he announced his plans for the Synod on Synodality on March 7, 2020. The Church throughout the whole world, including our diocese, was asked questions regarding how the Church herself proclaimed the Gospel. This was to be the basis of the conversation that began in October of 2023 and closed in October of 2024. The final document of the 16th Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops (aka the Synod on Synodality), ratified by Pope Francis, can be found here: www.synod.va/content/dam/synod/news/2024-10-26_final-document/ENG---Documento-finale.pdf

When Bishop Robert Barron spoke to the Canon Law Society of America in 2022, he explained synodality as "the tension between authority and consensus, between rule from above and rule from below, between the universal Church and the particular Churches." While each part of the Church is meant to listen and learn from each other (the faithful, religious, priests and bishops and the Holy Father), this does not mean that the Church is, or ever will be, a true democracy in which everyone has their particular say or opinion about doctrine and belief. Rather, as Pope Francis explained, all of the baptized participate in the essential mission of the Church, but in a particular way, Christ has named the Apostles and their successors, the bishops, as a hierarchy that serves the whole Body of Christ. This explanation makes up the threefold mission of a synodal Church: communion, participation and mission. It is this mutual counsel of the whole Church that is offered up to the Holy Spirit to guide and aid in the discernment of that same Church as we do God's will (more on that when we talk the sensus fidei [the sense of the faithful] next week). Let us remember that the growth of collegiality and synodality is a calling deeply rooted in the very life of the Church. The Holy Spirit invites us to listen to one another with humility, to walk side by side with patience, and to discern God's will together with courage and faith. In doing so, we reflect more fully the communion of love that binds Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, as well as all of us.

In the spirit of all of us working together, I offer you a recipe from the Pioneer Woman for a dump cake. Can't wait to try it myself! Here's the recipe: <https://www.thepioneerwoman.com/food-cooking/recipes/a11818/dump-cake-recipe/>

Walking together in faith!

Religious Education Sessions Beginning Sunday, Sept 14

Welcome to another wonderful year of Religious Education! We are so grateful to walk alongside your family on this journey of faith. Our promise is to make the religious education of our parish family a meaningful priority, and we ask that you join us by making the same commitment within your home.

Together, we will work hard to ensure that by the end of each year, our students will have learned more, loved more, and deepened their friendship with Jesus. Our greatest hope is that this growth will inspire a lifelong desire to continue learning and living the faith.

Catechetical Sunday Sept 21 during the 11AM Mass

Celebrating our Catechists' role in Faith Formation for our Parish

"Always be ready to give an explanation... for a reason for your hope." (1 Pet 3:15).

This year's National Catechetical theme reminds us of our calling to be witnesses of the faith and of the hope we have in Christ. Responding to this call, our catechists and aides have generously offered their time, talents, and hearts in service to our parish communities.

A Catechist is more than a teacher of the faith—they are someone who allows the Word of God to echo through their life. By example, they reflect the footprints of Jesus, sharing their faith and guiding students to live out the lessons of the Gospel each week.

We invite all parishioners to join us at the 11:00 AM Mass on Sunday, September 21, as we recognize and celebrate our Religious Education Catechists, Aides, STRS Teachers, Children's Ministry leaders, Vacation Bible School team, and Middle School volunteers.

Together, let us give thanks for their faithful service and pray for God's continued blessing upon them.

Family Catechesis Family-Centered Opportunities

Our Faith Formation Team is excited to journey with families this year as we celebrate our faith in fun, meaningful, and innovative ways! Each event is designed for the whole family ... parents, children, siblings, and even extended family members, so that everyone can grow together in faith.

This year we are expanding opportunities to learn and pray with the Rosary. In January, we will introduce our Rosary Kitchen Kits, and we are also launching a Rosary Group! Together, we will discover the stories behind each decade of the Rosary while creating our own rosaries, including wrist-sized versions to carry with us daily.

During Advent, families will join us in making our Annual Advent Wreaths and a Jesse Tree. The Jesse Tree helps us trace the lineage of Jesus, connecting Old Testament prophecies with the joyful anticipation of His coming.

We are also looking forward to a special celebration in honor of St. Joseph, highlighting his example of faith and fatherhood in connection with Father's Day.

These are just a small glimpse of the family catechetical opportunities we will be working on. Our goal, to nurture both personal and family faith, while strengthening our sense of community and shared discipleship.

Women's Prayer Group Next Gathering Tues, Sept 23 7PM - STRS Library

What will you find within our Women's Prayer Group? Fellowship and Support, allowing each of us a chance to share at our own pace and comfort level, while offering encouragement and companionship along the way.

Praying together opens the door to Spiritual Growth, offering opportunities to learn, reflect, and cultivate a more consistent prayer life.

In turn, praying together allows us to be Intercessors for a wider community, lifting up specific needs and concerns to God in unity.

Most importantly, you will Find Strength in Numbers, "When two or more are gathered in My name..." reminds us that we have the opportunity to not only impact individual prayer but also experience a shared sense of purpose and strength.

Our group has grown by leaps and bounds aging from 23 to 84 years old. Over time, we have fostered unity and connection among women, creating a network of support and encouragement. The only thing missing is YOU! We meet on the 4th Tuesday of each month.

OCIA - Order of Catholic Initiation (Formally known as RCIA)

New Sessions Begin in October - Helping to stay well grounded!

We are very excited to share that we have just completed our first summer OCIA sessions—offering twelve new candidates the opportunity to prepare for the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. Even more exciting, we are already beginning a new series with four candidates signed up and ready to start their journey!

Are you, or someone you know, thinking about becoming Catholic? Are you a baptized Catholic who still needs to receive the Sacraments of Eucharist and/or Confirmation? Would you like the chance to ask questions, explore your faith, and receive answers in a welcoming, no-pressure environment?

We understand that some may feel hesitant about taking the first step to approach a priest or deacon. But we invite you to take that step with us! Why? Because OCIA is more than a program, it is a journey of conversion and growth in faith, helping us strengthen our roots and remain grounded in Christ. Please call our Faith Formation Office @ 856-939-0592 for more details on how we can better support you.

Who are my Faith Supporters

Meet our 2025 Confirmation Candidates

In life you meet tens of thousands of different people, but we all know that one person, who stands out most. For me, it is my mom. She is a true example of a faith supporter for many reasons. She encourages our family to go to Mass every Sunday and she even has our family pray before every meal. My mom has also helped me stand up for what was right instead of what is easy. If I had to say the most important way she does this would be that every morning, she reminds me to be a leader, not a follower, and to do more than the bare minimum in all things I do.

My mom is the person who introduced me to God. She enrolled me in St Vincent DePaul Catholic School in Mays Landing when I was 3 years old. I completed the next six years of learning not only basic classes but all about my Catholic faith. Going to a Catholic School taught about respect and integrity that stuck with me my whole life. The overall experience made my faith for God even stronger. My faith was also impacted by my teachers. Each one contributed to my understanding and devotion to God.

In 2018, my mom and I moved to Glendora. For a short time, my mother was transporting me to Atlantic County to continue going to St Vincent De Paul School. However, when covid hit, I was transferred to public school in this area. My mom was reluctant with the decision because she wanted to make sure I was still making my Catholic faith a priority. My mom explained I would continue my Catholic journey by attending Religious Ed classes at Holy Child. It was also important that we continue attending Mass and giving back to our new community. When I look back, I am so blessed that I had all of these opportunities given to me to continue my faith in God.

I feel I have a good relationship with God, however it's still a work in progress. I say that because I need to be reminded that it's not just at church that I need to turn to God, but at any moment in my life. I need to remember that praying to God could be as simple as when I'm walking in the halls of school, or when I have a bad day and could use some help. It's asking God to be with me and walk beside me all the time. Not just bad days, but all day. This is what makes my faith in God important to me, and I want to continue to learn and follow in his ways.

Gabe Erman

Bereavement Starting

Dear Friends,

Thank you to all who have been part of our grief support groups. Your willingness to share your stories and trust me—and one another—with your thoughts and emotions continues to be both humbling and inspiring. It has truly been an honor to walk beside you on your healing journey. Our current 6-week group has begun and meets Mondays at 6:00 PM at the Parish Office Building. Even though the group is in session, the door remains open each week for anyone who may feel ready to join. Whether you're returning or coming for the first time, you are welcome here. If you're a past participant, we'd love for you to stop by, say hello, and share how you've been. You're always part of this community.

With gratitude,

Dawn Lipomi
