HENRY BLAKE

HARDWARE

Our Story

The story of Henry Blake Hardware unfolded in 2011, after the founders realised whilst working closely with designers and architects that there was a need for quality high end customised door and cabinet hardware that did not exist.

This led to a small range of door handles and cabinet hardware that was initially inspired by the Art Deco era but brought up to date with a modern interpretation. The product line continues to evolve with a core range of premium hardware alongside custom pieces commissioned for high end residential properties and prestigious hospitality projects worldwide.

All our products are made from solid brass then finished in either a high quality plating or a hand applied living finish which will change with touch and climate giving the piece a natural patina.
If we can be of help with either our existing products which you may need in a bespoke size, or if you would like your own designs brought to life, please don’t hesitate to contact us.
