THE FA VASE FIRST ROUND QUALIFYING

As with the FA Cup details of the initial draw arrived too late for anything but the basic details to appear in the Wessex Post a couple of weeks back- how time flies, so now a closer look at the 18 ties involving Velocity Wessex League Clubs and, as seems to be the way at this stage of the Competition, there are too many all-Wessex ties. So, in draw order. DEVIZES TOWN will welcome Wessex new boys YATELEY UNITED to Wiltshire. The home side, back in familiar surroundings in the Western League after one season in the Hellenic, have plenty of experience in the Vase, but have not passed this the Second Round Qualifying for a number of years while Yateley have played just three games in the Competition, losing two. AFC ALDERMASTON are in their second spell in the Wessex League, finishing 13th last season, but have yet to win a game in the Vase after seven attempts and they entertain BRISTOL TELEPHONES from the Western League. Based obviously in Bristol, they too have yet to win from their previous outings in the Competition, also on seven occasions so added incentive for both sides.

CORSHAM TOWN were moved to the Hellenic League three years ago from the Western League and finished 10th last season and play host to KINTBURY RANGERS who have joined the Wessex League as Champions of the Wiltshire Senior League and will be making their first appearance in the Vase since 1999. BRIDPORT, now in the South West Peninsula League will welcome MILLBROOK to their St Marys Field ground having lost to Hamble Club in the last two seasons while their visitors reached the First Round Proper before going out to Buckland Athletic. PETERSFIELD TOWN, back in Wessex League territory after a year in Sussex, host HAMWORTHY RECREATION at Love Lane. The home Club have never passed the Second Round whilst their visitors, in their second season in the Competition in 2024, reached the Fourth Round before losing on penalties to Jersey Bulls.

ASH UNITED make the long journey (a round trip of around 180 miles) to STURMINSTER NEWTON UNITED having only survived their first outing twice in the last decade. Their hosts have just enjoyed their first season in the Western League and this is only the Cherries' second season in the Vase. An interesting all-Wessex tie sees HAMBLE CLUB paired with FLEETLANDS. Hamble finished fourth in the League last season whilst Fleetlands finished one place lower in Division One but the Monks do have a Fifth Round appearance in the Vase on their record. UNITEDSERVICES PORTSMOUTH and LAVERSTOCK & FORD – another all-Wessex tie. The hosts suffered relegation at the end of last season while their visitors had a disappointing season by their standards, the Portsmouth side reached the semi-final stage in 2020/21 but one suspects it will be the Wiltshire side that progresses.

AMESBURY TOWN against BLACKFIELD & LANGLEY is a meeting between two Clubs who have suffered in recent seasons, Amesbury having spent one campaign in the Wiltshire League and the Watersiders being relegated to our Division One at the end of last season. Anyone's game but Amesbury may have the edge. HYTHE & DIBDEN have an interesting looking tie with BADSHOT LEA travelling down from the outskirts of Farnham. The home side have a poor record in the Vase while their visitors have returned to the Combined Counties this season after relegation. PAGHAM, back in Sussex after one recent season in the Wessex League, play hosts to NEWPORT IOW who are still bedevilled by ground problems. A home win seems most likely.

A North Hampshire tie as WHITCHURCH UNITED make the short journey to ALRESFORD TOWN. The Jamboys finished the season strongly and it could be close. All-Wessex again with BROCKENHURST crossing to newly promoted EAST COWES VICTORIA who bowed out of last season's Competition by a single goal to eventual semi-finalists Hartpury University and will already have looked to lay down an early marker in the Premier Division. And a third all-Wessex tie and a local derby to boot with TOTTON & ELING meeting ROMSEY TOWN. Neither Club will have been happy with last season but the away side could just shade it. RINGWOOD TOWN finished a creditable 7th in the League last season and could well fancy their chances at Sussex League side SELSEY who finished in the lower reaches of their League last time out.

With Newport and Vics drawn away COWES SPORTS provide Vase football for the Island when they entertain WINCANTON TOWN. A difficult journey for the Wasps who found travel a problem last season and a home win must be on the cards. Two to go and an all Wessex One tie as CLANFIELD head north to COVE. The visitors equipped themselves well last season but may come off second best. And last, but not least, FOLLAND SPORTS welcome BEMERTON HEATH HARLEQUINS to Hamble but with the hosts being reprieved from relegation and the visitors stepping down from the Southern League, it does look like an away win.

Again, good luck to all our Clubs who at least, unlike those in the Emirates FA Cup, will have some football under their belts come the day.

Today Cobham Sports (blue) welcomed Blackfield & Langley to their Merley Park home. The hosts hit four without reply on a very humid afternoon. The Dorset Premier League outfit added a perimeter fence around Easter and with other plans in the pipeline look to be pushing towards promotion.
