MAIL YOUR DUES TODAY!

Hello fellow pin traders and I hope you are all doing well and enjoying the warmer weather. I hope you have been getting your life back to the new normal and been able to get out and enjoy the weather lately and enjoy your friends as well. We have been doing some traveling, Nashville in February for the Swap there and just got back from Pennsylvania Swap in March. We will be heading to Rock Island, Illinois for the Midwest swap shortly and then to North Carolina the following week for the swap there. Looking forward to going to North Carolina as I have not been to that swap before. Hope to see you at one of the upcoming swaps.

Nashville was a great swap as it has been for several years, always enjoy the swap and friendships shared there. As with most swaps the numbers of traders are not what they use to be prior to Covid and we have lost several friends from illness and passing, but with the smaller numbers it allows more time to actually visit with other traders and spend more time searching for that pin needed to fill that hole. Nashville still had a fair number of traders and some new pins out for the current series. It is my understanding that the Mississippi Pin traders are looking to move to Memphis area next year which will actually make it a couple of hours closer for us in this part of the country, looking forward to hearing the details as they come out.

The Pennsylvania swap was moved from York to the Harrisburg/Hershey area this year which was a nice change. The facilities were great and the swap room was well lighted and plenty of room for all the traders there and there were a lot of traders to trade with. I was able to get a lot of pins to bring home and have almost completely caught up the current series as well as found several pins I have been looking for and needing for some time now. Hope next year we can go out and spend a few days looking over the area in more detail. Hope to see some more of you all next year as well.

Wish you all well and looking forward to trading with you in the future. Kent Clovis, PCC, LITPC IPP

Hello Fellow Lion Pin Traders, I trust that the new year has been good to you thus far. I'm happy to see that things seem to be on the upswing. While we aren't out of the woods yet completely, the virus appears to be easing and things are gradually returning to the "new" normal. We've already seen several Pin Swaps so far this year as reported on by PCC & LITPC IPP Lion Kent elsewhere in this newsletter. From what he reports it sounds like these have been pretty successful. As I write this, things are getting underway for the Midwest Swap up in Rock Island, IL. There's still the NC Swap in just a few weeks and then in another couple of months we'll have the GrandDaddy of them all in Williamsburg, VA. The LITPC Alternate Site Swap is shaping up to be another great pin trading get together. There's still time to register for the early bird deadline. Don't miss out. Just before the Alternate Site Swap, Oklahoma will be holding our State Convention in Oklahoma City. Make sure to register now to attend. See the form elsewhere in this newsletter. Our Annual Oklahoma Lions Pin Trading Club meeting will be held during the convention. Watch for further information as to the time and location of the meeting. At our Annual Meeting one of the important items on the Agenda will be the Election of Officers. We have a number of vacancies to fill. We really need people to step up and help with the running of our organization. Our Constitution calls for our Board of Directors of the Club to be composed of a President, Vice President, Immediate Past President, Secretary-Treasurer and Directors. Terms are two (2) years. So if you'd like to volunteer to serve on the OkLPTC Board please contact me or one of the other Officers or just show up to the meeting. Since our last Newsletter I am sad to report the passing of several members of our Pin Trading Fraternity. PDG Lion Don Adams of Oregon and PDG Lion John Holland of Nevada have both left us. Also, it was recently learned that PDG Lion John Jones from Great Britain passed away unexpectedly. The loss of these and many other of our Brotherhood makes us pause to consider how short our time is here on this earth and the special bond we share with our fellow Lion Pin Trading friends. May we treasure their memories and the times we got to enjoy sharing our pin trading hobby. Plans are already in progress for our next Southwest Pin Swap to be held once again in January at Lake Murray in Southern Oklahoma by Ardmore. Start now to schedule to join us and enjoy a good time and plenty of Lions friendship. That about wraps up my ramblings for this issue of the newsletter. Until next time take care, stay safe and keep trading those pins. YIL/PT, PDG Lion Ed, President
