Sharing Peace During Cold & Flu Season

For the time being, please be respectful of each other's health by not offering handshakes during the sharing of the Peace. We encourage you instead to wave, bump elbows, use the peace sign, or bow toward each other. We encourage you also to use the hand sanitizer available in every pew.

Forward in Faith Estimate of Giving

As we enter budget planning season, we are thankful to you for letting us know your plan for giving to the church in the coming year. Many of you have returned your cards already- thank you! A reminder that we'd appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

New Adult Forum!

By Heart: Conversations with Martin Luther's Small Catechism Begins March 8th. Luther had a way with words and an eye toward instruction as he wrote the Small Catechism. Many of us had to learn (and memorize!) some of his sayings, but do we actually remember what they mean? Beginning on Sunday, March 8, all are welcome to join Pastor Nathan in the Lounge at 10:30 AM as we learn and talk about Luther's powerful, succinct sayings that are the foundation of our Lutheran faith. This time together is for both long-time members and those newly exploring membership. A richly illustrated book is included! We will meet for three Sundays in March, two in April and two in May. Let us know by February 15th if you'd like to participate. (You can use your Welcome to Worship card or contact the church office directly.)

New Zoom Book Discussion

A Faith of Many Rooms Book Discussion begins March 4th - Many have left the Christian faith because it feels too small, too confining. But what if the faith we inhabit is roomier than we thought? How might we grow in our own faith while also feeling better about encouraging others who desire a roomier faith? Join Pastor Nathan by Zoom on Wednesdays at 5:00 PM by Zoom beginning March 4th as we discuss the book, "A Faith of Many Rooms: Inhabiting a More Spacious Christianity" by Debie Thomas. A sought-after speaker on Scripture and faith, Thomas' recent book has gotten a lot of attention from a wide variety of Christians. Please indicate your interest on your Welcome to Worship card, or contact the church office or Pastor Nathan directly. You can purchase the hard-cover book through the church for $25 or order on your own from many book retailers. Space is limited; please sign-up by February 15th.

Membership: Different Journeys, One Faith

We all have different journeys when it comes to our relationship and participation in a community of faith. But as Paul says in Ephesians, the Holy Spirit calls us to the hope of "one Lord, one faith, one baptism" through which we seek to deepen our love for God, one another, and the world. Are you seeking baptism for the first time? Or are you looking to affirm your baptism through a process of study, prayer and conversation? Or are you already baptized and familiar with church life but want to make more connections through conversation with others? These are all different paths toward becoming a member of St. Paul's. Want to learn more? Join Pastor Nathan on Sunday, February 22nd at 10:30 in the Lounge to explore ways you can become a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church.
