Although Debbie Young's cabins were wonderful as she designed them, we always like to see what our members come up with.

Here are Debbie's:

And here are other people's:

From Barbara Antol:

Thanks again for another very fun Camp!

Here are a couple photos of my completed project. I decided to make mine into an art gallery. I really loved this unique kit.

I didn't furnish the inside yet. I'm still figuring that out.

From Vicki Scidmore:

Here is my finished house. I have some goodies on order to finish the inside. It will be period rather than a craft studio.
Love this project!

From Carolyn Eiche:

Here is my Craftsman studio that I plan to make into an art studio. It is still a work a progress and part of my 2025's CYLC.

From Marilyn Ferkinhoff:

My weaving studio

From Julie Steiner:

From Janice Waisman:

I made my Craftsman Bungalow into a bakery.

Now I'm busy painting cakes, cupcakes and breads.

From Vicki Scidmore:

From Lesia Lennex:

I finally finished my 2024 Camp Makamini! I've attached pics. So pleased with the result!! The structure is a Ranger Station, somewhere in Montana. It has wildflowers- coneflower, trillium, and columbine, as well as some bison that happened by.
