The Three Sided Vignette

Here are completed examples of the 2023 NAME Day Project ... the three sided vignette.

---

From Bette Accola:

Modern kitchen with coffee bar.

---

From Sabrina Ingalls:

So excited to have completed my first ever NAME Day Project. I turned it into a mini-version of my real-life workspace (Mostly Monsters, where I make and sell whimsical monster-themed goods), and of course HAD to include my 3 cats who are always "helping" me work in various ways!

My workshop includes my sewing supplies, Cricut & Sewing machines, sample merchandise, items being shipped, inspirations, and even lunch!

From Charlotte Randall:

My NAME Day kit is Equestrian Themed. The sides are: Side 1 - the front door of the barn; Side 2 - the Lobby area with a carved brooch on the wall and bag of carrots for the horses; Side 3 - the Tack Room, complete with farrier tools, halter and lead rope, and manure bucket, shovel & rake. There's even a trophy, ribbon and photo of me on my horse, Blue.

---

From Shannon Davis:

My kit has 3 gardens: Side 1 - Tuscan inspired Garden; Side 2 - English inspired Garden; Side 3 - Asian inspired Garden

Shannon is known for her ability to use all kinds of "found" items. Her own yard is a valuable resource for her. She even had to form a 'new' hand for the Buddha that was missing one.

From Debby Albert:

From Ellen Grinstead Yunker:

These are my first NAME Day 2023 pictures. Since I'm the VP, I make the sample kit up for the club. I had so much fun with my gorgeous Aristocratic Attic pieces by Julia Stewart! I'm also working on another piece, since of course I had to buy a kit & be part of our club event! This one will be a Halloween theme.

From Marcia Abramoff:

Here is my 2023 NAME Day - Canada West group project (The Little Princess Nursery).

---

From Terry Parkin:

I build two of the 2023 NAME Day projects. This was the one I did with the group.

---

Also from Terry Parkin:

This was a good way to use very many of the cupboards' supplies.

---

From Kathrene McKinnell:

My NAME DAY project ... an ode to travels.

---

From Bonnie Morrison:

Based on Cafe Stephan's DOM in Passau, Germany, which I visited on a Christmas Cruise on the Danube one year.

From Peggy Zorn:

From Ynez Fritsch:

---

From Suzanne Seiffert:

I combined several Bonnie Backe classes that I took at IGMA Castine over the years.

There was a sewing stand, a woven screen, a tassel fringed footstool, and finally La Passementiere.

Also from Suzanne Seiffert:

I decided to use a necklace that I had for years that had Mexican items attached. I made Saguaro cactus after visiting Arizona 20 years ago and I made 3 baskets in Lidea Stroud's class at Castine last June. This is perfect for showing them.

From Margaret Gordus:

Made this for my grandson for Christmas.
He is into music and loves flowers and plants.

---

From Shannon Test:

My buddies from the 100 Acre Wood ...

---

From Gayle Hansen:

Our club, Indian Trail Mini Makers purchased kits for all our members. We started the kits at our October meeting. I finished mine at home.

From Diane Scott:

This is a display of hand-crafted baskets.

---

From Diane MacDougall:

This is my Scottish room done in 1:12 scale.

This is my octopus garden, an undersea fantasy room done in 1:24 scale. I had so much fun doing these projects. Thank you to everyone involved!

---

From Sue Ostheimer:

This is my Naturalist's Nook.

and this is my Seaside Cottage.

From Carolyn Martinez:

---

From Vicki Scidmore:

Here is my NAME Day project. It was fun once I thought of a theme!

---

From Sally Lonn:

---

From Bette Accola:

From Sheila LeQuia:

NAME Day Flower Shop

---

From Laura Gifford:

Here's my completed project. I am happy with the way it turned out. I will have fun changing things up for the many holidays throughout the year!

From Carol Kira:

From Jeffrey Ritter:

The Raleigh chapter folks encouraged me to share my zen scenes. Simplicity was intended. Susan did a great job cutting the kit. I found the golden reclining Buddha among a lot of rescued dollhouses and it inspired the scene. The wall hanging is a miniature of one that hangs in my own yoga space. The garden includes a mini bonsai that was a gift from my daughters (I also maintain bonsai) and, well, Chinese take out and wine is the ultimate zen!

From Bonnie Helterhoff:
Here are my NAME day pics ... it was fun.
