The Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

One night walking along the shore, the sky flashed and he noticed two footprints made by him, and

When the light came to him, he looked down and noticed that in his life there was only one footprint.

This bothered him. "Lord, You say You, You'd walk with me, but I noticed that during my life there are only two footprints. I don't understand. You must be wrong."

The Lord replied, "You are wrong, you and I walk together in all the times of trouble and in all the times of joy. I was there when you were born and I will be there when you die. I will walk with you all the way."
