Diaconal Dan's Deliberation

Friends,

Labour Day weekend is a little like New Year's Eve. Summer is coming to an end, and a new school year—and a new program year—begins. Students are heading back to classes, beginning a new grade or year at school, and some are starting entirely new programs. Churches begin to start up activities after a summer break, and I look forward to us getting back into the swing of things after a lovely summer.

One of the programs we are exploring with the Christian Education Committee is Sunday morning learning for our pre-teens. Every other Sunday, our pre-teens will have an opportunity to engage in biblical and faith exploration with Shona. She will be taking the lead in providing lessons, questions, activities, and different ways for our pre-teens to explore their faith and become more involved in worship. There will even be opportunities for adults to join them for games, conversations, or discussions. So do not be surprised if you are invited to participate as well!

There is a lot of good stuff we, as a faith community, are going to get up to in the coming months as we continue to live into God's Word, guided by the Holy Spirit—welcoming all, serving others, and reaching out to those in need.

So, as another summer draws to a close, I look forward to seeing what this new season of ministry brings.

Peace be with you,
Rev Dan
