THIRTEENTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

This weekend, all three Holy scripture readings illustrate how God's goodness returns favors abundantly for those who make worthy sacrifices: The sacrifices and selfless service rendered without expecting anything in return.

The story of Elisha and the generous helpful woman, exemplifies the rewards of generosity. She acts without any ulterior motives, nor any self-interest, but out of respect for God's servant, the prophet Elisha. God rewards her generosity and she is given a son to care for in her old age.

St. Paul tells us that all who die to sin, shall live with Christ 'in newness of life' (Romans 6:4).

Finally Jesus says that "whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.. and whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones"... (Matthew 10:39-42) will be rewarded.

Sacrifice is at the heart of Christian discipleship, but then so is the Resurrection!

DECIMOTERCER DOMINGO
DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

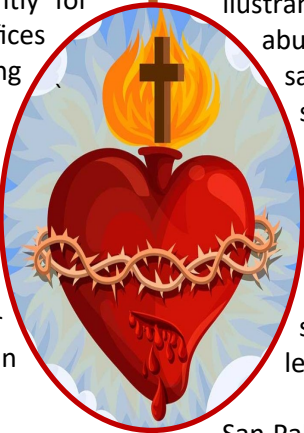

Esta semana las tres lecturas de las sagradas escrituras ilustran como la divinidad de Dios nos devuelve favores abundantemente para aquellos que hacen dignos sacrificios: El sacrificio y el servicio desinteresado sin esperar nada a cambio.

La historia de Eliseo y la mujer útil y generosa, es un ejemplo de las recompensas de la generosidad. Ella actúa sin ningún tipo de interés, sino por el respeto del siervo de Dios, el profeta Eliseo. Dios recompensa su generosidad y a ella se le da el cuidado de su hijo a su edad avanzada.

San Pablo nos dice que todos los que murieron al pecado, vivirán con Cristo "en una novedad de vida" (Romanos 6:4).

Por último Jesús dice que "quien pierde su vida por mi causa, la encontrara... y quien da solo una taza de agua fría a uno de sus pequeños"... (Matthew 10:39-42) serán recompensados.

El sacrificio está en el Corazón del discipulado Cristiano, pero también esta la Resurrección!
