

Welcome and Aloha Sr. Roselyne, MSMHC

I, Sr Roselyne Mawpat I'm an Indian nun hailing from the state of Meghalaya which is in the Northeastern part of the country of India. For me God is the center of my life and of all things as the psalmist would say in the book of psalm 139:16 "Your eyes beheld my uniform substance. In your book were written all the days that were formed for me, when none of them yet existed".

I remain grateful to God for the gift of my religious vocation. In which now I belong to the congregation of the Missionary Sisters of Mary Help of Christians (MSMHC) founded by Venerable Stephen Ferrando Sdb. On 24th October 1942 in Guwahati, Assam, India.

This is the first time for me to work in the mission field out of my state Meghalaya and country India and now I am here with you at St. Raphael parish, 'home away from home' not really knowing what lies ahead of me but I trust in the Word of God which says; "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you a hope and a future" (Jer;29:11). Though I know fully well that life would have its own challenges, yet I have another assurance of God's Word "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go". (Joshua; 1:9).

Let us forge ahead together in hope, sharing life and learning from each other's experiences. May our Blessed mother Mary and her son Jesus accompany us in our daily schedules.

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Jesus begins his Sermon on the Mount with a series of blessings, the Beatitudes. The Beatitudes are a summary of the fundamental attitude of a Christian steward. This speech sets the themes and tone for Christ's public ministry. He calls for a radical change in how we respond to the human condition. Good stewards understand that conversion is a lifelong process and trying to live the Beatitudes is fundamental to this process. Make it a point to reflect on this Gospel reading during the week. Identify the blessing you relate to the most. Which one is the most challenging for you?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading

Zephaniah 2:3, 3:12-13

There will be a people who remain sheltered from God's anger.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 146:6-10

The Lord is faithful forever.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:26-31

God chooses the weak to show his power.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 5:1-12a

Jesus teaches what it means to be happy.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's reading is the beginning of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which is found in Matthew's Gospel. The form of the Beatitudes found here is not unique to Jesus. Beatitudes are found in the Old Testament, in the psalms, and in wisdom literature, for example. They are a way to teach about who will find favor with God.

We quickly note in this reading that the people whom Jesus calls "blessed" and "happy" are not people we think of as blessed or happy . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. This Gospel is one of reversals. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness.

"Blessed" is sometimes translated as happy, fortunate, or favored. In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, those who mourn, those who are persecuted. This news might have been welcome—and surprising—to the crowds who heard Jesus that day.

The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Our vocation as Christians is not to be first in this world, but rather to be first in the eyes of God. By referring to the good things that the faithful will experience, Matthew reminds us that those who act in the manner described in the Beatitudes will find their reward with God.

Stewardship Prayer

Loving Father!

I desire to spend my life living in collaboration with You as a disciple of Your son Jesus.

I am truly grateful for the numerous gifts that You have given me.

I acknowledge that everything that I have and everything that I am are Your gifts.

As I approach the Eucharist, I bring a portion of Your gifts as my offering.

I bring the time that I spend with You in prayer.

I bring what I have done in Your service.

I bring a just portion of my treasure.

I pray that You grant me the wisdom and strength to live my life as a reflection of Your love.

I pray that my participation in the Eucharist and my sacrificial offering is pleasing to You.

I ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.
