Prayers in constant Thanksgiving to God and for all in need of healing in God's Merciful Will.

For God's mercy to be received by all who are dying, or away from the Faith. For all struggling with addictions, depression and mental illness to experience Joy and support of those who help them.

For all who the Lord desires to be invited and sign up for OCIA and continued blessing on those who will be called to come forth.

For all missionaries in the world and for all of us to support them physically and spiritually since we are all one family in God and for all parents and those who work with God's precious children to be given patience from the Holy Spirit.

For those who are persecuted and for the conversion of the persecutors.

Prayers for all the ordained especially for those that served at St. Joseph and St. Catherine's. For Fr. Eustace, Deacon Dan, Fr. Kummer, and for our brother priest Fr. Benedict in Nigeria. For all the missionaries who have been at our parishes and for their special needs.

For Prayer request please call Susie Close at 214-587-0915.

Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

Consider OCIA, if you are:

- Unbaptized
- A baptized non-Catholic
- A baptized Catholic who has not been confirmed

"I waited far too long to begin this process. For many years I created reasons in my mind for putting it off. I told myself I was too busy, too nervous, or not confident enough in my understanding of the faith. ...Now that I have gone through the experience, I would encourage anyone who is considering this journey to step into it fully. The people who guide you are patient, welcoming, and genuinely committed to meeting you exactly where you are."

Are You Ready for the Reward?

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Last Sunday at Caesarea Philippi, Peter boldly professed, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Jesus praised him and entrusted to him the keys of the Kingdom. But in today’s Gospel, the same Peter who confessed Jesus as Lord could not accept the cross. When Jesus revealed that He must suffer and die, Peter rebuked Him: “God forbid, Lord! This shall never happen to you.”

Peter wanted the crown without the cross. But Jesus teaches us that the road to eternal glory passes through sacrifice, obedience, and self-denial: “If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.”

Jeremiah tells us that he allowed himself to be persuaded by God. Even when God's message was difficult and unpopular, he could not remain silent. St. Paul likewise urges us to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, rather than allowing the world to shape our lives.

This raises an important question for each of us: What are we living for?

Sometimes we want God to bless our plans, but we do not want to surrender our plans to God. We want the reward of heaven, but we resist the sacrifices that lead there. We want resurrection without Good Friday, victory without struggle, and the crown without the cross.

But Jesus says: “Whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.”

Every time you forgive when you have the right to be angry, every time you choose honesty when dishonesty would benefit you, every time you remain faithful when temptation invites you away, every time you serve someone who cannot repay you—you are carrying your cross with Christ.

And the cross is not the end. There is a reward. Jesus promises eternal life to those who faithfully follow Him. As St. Paul reminds us, what we offer to God in this life is never wasted.

Therefore, let us ask ourselves today:
If Christ came for me today, would He find me ready for the reward?

Do not make God an alternative in your life. Put Him first. Seek His Kingdom before possessions, popularity, comfort, and worldly success.

The world may reward us with temporary things, but God's reward is eternal.

May we have the courage to choose Christ, embrace our crosses, remain faithful in sacrifice, and one day hear those beautiful words: “Well done, good and faithful servant... come and share your Master's joy.” Amen. Fr. Eustace

After all the Masses the next two weekends in both parishes, members of the OCIA team will be available to take questions about the process for entering or re-entering the Catholic Church that will start in September. These inquiry sessions offer the opportunity to learn more about the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA). Is the Holy Spirit prompting you? Come and see what it's all about!

PRAYER FOR SYNOD 2026

Blessed Trinity, Source of our life and our unity. We ask for your presence with and within us as we undertake this synodal journey. Create in us, and all those responsible for preparing the synod, a discerning spirit. Help us to deepen our relationship with you and with one another over the months and weeks ahead. Grow in us the fire of your love, that we may eagerly respond to your loving invitation to spread the joy of the Gospel and to serve the poor, suffering, and vulnerable. Form us to be better disciples, creating vibrant, mission-oriented communities of faith, hope and charity. We ask this through the intercession of our diocesan patrons, Mary, the Immaculate Conception, and St. Matthew.

Amen.
