Connecting Communities to Improve Snoqualmie Valley Mobility Options & Accessibility

Coalition Meeting
August 11, 2023
Introductions + Networking

• Please provide your name & pronouns, if comfortable.

• Organization, Title.

• Focus question: What was your first concert? (Sing as much or as little.)

If new to SVMC, Welcome! Please share name, organization, and contact info in chat to be included in our distribution list.
Snoqualmie Valley Mobility Coalition Welcomes All

Tracie Jones
Bree Boyce
Heather Clark
In Gratitude...

The Snoqualmie Valley Mobility Coalition values all members’ experiences & identities with honor & respect. SVMC encourages all to participate, as we are committed to listening, learning, & improving our collective processes.

SVMC acknowledges our work takes place on traditional Snoqualmie & Coastal Salish Tribal lands, among others, as the first people of this valley. We gratefully honor the land, & the past, present, future of these tribes.

Visit: Snoqualmie Tribe Ancestral Lands Movement
The Snoqualmie Valley Mobility Coalition:

Aims to improve regional transportation and accessibility through education, advocacy, expert feedback, resource sharing, project support, and a shared mission.
Goals

• Create space for conversations.

• Collaborate and develop progressive strategies to unify engagement and long-term planning.

• Stay up-to-date on regional transportation news through information-sharing and community-wide opportunities.
Agenda

- Partner Announcements
- Meredith Sampson
  Metro Flex Services
- Julio Perez
  Joint Cross-County Study
- Next Steps and Discussion
- September’s Task Force Overview
Monthly Partner Announcements and Updates
MEREDITH SAMPSON

King County Metro
Metro Flex Services

Contact Information:
MeSampson@KingCo.gov
Metro Transportation Planner
Julio Perez

Cross-County Transportation Needs Between the Tri-Counties Final Report

Contact Information:

JPerez@Hopelink.org
North King County Mobility Coordinator
Comprehensive Planning Statement

- SVMC Vision Statement: The Snoqualmie Valley Mobility Coalition aims to provide affordable, equitable, and collaborative transportation options for all communities, promoting comprehensive regional prosperity.

- SVMC has discussed creating a unified statement to provide local government and city planners with a clear framework to make informed decisions based on the Coalition’s goals, objectives, policies, actions, and standards.
Roundtable and Summary

• Discussion Points and Conclusions

• Next Steps and Parking Lot

• Actionable Items
Calendar

NEXT SVMC MEETINGS

Next Task Force Meeting
September 8, 2023

Next Coalition Meeting
October 12, 2023

Bi-monthly meetings are held on the 2nd Friday of the month, from 10:15 AM-12:00 PM.

Calendar information may be found HERE.

Questions, suggestions, presentation ideas, email Tracie Jones - TJones@hopelink.org.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Partners in the Community:
RARET Tabletop Exercise allows partners to test their ability by addressing emergency transportation coordination needs. August 25, 2023, 11:30 AM-3:00 PM; Register HERE.

SVMC in the Community ~ Stop by to say “Hi!”:
*Mt. Si HS Family Partnerships – August 15, 2023
*Carnation KCLS Family Connections – August 17, 2023
*SnoValley Hopelink Market – August 30, 2023

(SVMC offers Transportation Support through Valley-specific Educational Training and Tabling Event Services.)
Thank you for attending today’s meeting!

Tracie Jones
Snoqualmie Valley Mobility Coordinator
(425)-466-3442
TJones@hopelink.org

Bree Boyce
Senior Manager of Mobility Coalitions
(425)-495-3191
BBoyce@hopelink.org