

International Sponsorship

We source and hire international professionals with niche or hard to find skills.

Paxus is one of the few Technology and Digital recruitment agencies with Temporary Skills Shortage (TSS) international sponsorship accreditation.

With continued skill shortages in the market and new roles constantly developing, our international sponsorship service under an Australian Government agreement, allows us to better support our clients and contractors with hard to fill roles.

Why Paxus?

- › Ability to sponsor candidates nominated to work as part of the TSS approved skilled occupation list
- › We can hire your pre-identified candidates or source new candidates
- › We work with a Migration Law Partner, making the Visa application process smooth and efficient
- › We have been sponsoring international candidates for 15+ years making us well versed at working through the application process, and overcoming any challenges
- › We utilise creative and diverse sourcing strategies to attract niche global talent
- › We have an ability to quickly mobilise and scale our services to meet dynamic project demands
- › We offer guaranteed compliance through our ISO 9001:2015 quality certification
- › We are Disability Confident Recruiter Certified

Proven experience of successful TSS placements with clients in:

-  Financial Services
-  Retail
-  Insurance
-  State Government
