

Boulders Outlast Jackals in Ten Stop Three-Game Slide

May 30, 2026

UNDATED — The Boulders struck out 20 times at the plate and left 17 men on base but still rallied for their ninth comeback win of the season, 11-7 in 10 innings Saturday night at Hinchliffe Stadium in Paterson, NJ, levelling the four-game series at a victory apiece.

New York (11-7) fell behind 3-0 in the second inning, then erupted for five runs in the top of the third behind RBI singles from SS Santino Rosso, LF John Schroeder, and 3B Norris McClure, while 1B Dan Tauken highlighted the outburst with a two-run double.

New Jersey (10-7) closed the gap to 5-4 in the fifth before the Boulders made it 6-4 in the eighth on C Jack Scanlon's RBI double.

RHP Tyler Vail (W, 2-0) got tagged for two runs in the bottom of the ninth but wound up the winner when his teammates put up another five spot in the top of the 10th; RF Aaron Simmons and Schroeder both had ribby singles before CF Julian Boyd delivered a game-sealing three-run double for his first RBIs of the season.

LHP Andrew Armstrong gave up an unearned run in the bottom of the 10th before eventually retiring the final two Jackals on a strikeout and grounder to first with two men on.

Game three of the wraparound set is scheduled for 2:05pm EDT tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon.

Also of note:

* Rosso (1-for-5, walk, run, RBI) extended his hitting streak to 14 games (26-58 / .448)

* RHP Garrett Cooper (4 R, 7 H, 5 BB, 6 K) went 6 innings for the 2nd time this season

-- Written by Marc Ernay & William Rosen