Now 7-0 in Season Head-to-Head

July 18th, 2025

Pomona, NY – The New York Boulders exited the All-Star break and entered the win column against the New Jersey Jackals, 9-3, Friday night at Clover Stadium.

New York (29-27) got a franchise record-tying 12 strikeouts from LHP Isaac Rohde (W, 3-1 / 7 IP, 0 R, 2 H, 2 BB, 12 K), who fanned 11 of the first 15 batters he faced and had a no-hitter going until two outs in the fifth inning.

The Boulders jumped on New Jersey (20-36) with back-to-back one-out doubles in the bottom of the first from 2B Kyle Hess and 1B Jason Agresti for a 1-0 lead and pretty much never looked back.

DH Alfredo Marte led off the fourth inning with a double, then scored two batters later on an RBI single by 3B Santino Rosso.

Agresti made it 3-0 to start the sixth with a solo home run off Jackals starter Francis Ferguson (L, 2-5), then the home team went up 4-0 in the seventh; RF Isaac Bellony drew a leadoff walk, stole second and third, then scored on C Jack Scanlon's RBI single.

New Jersey finally found the scoreboard in the top of the eighth inning after loading the bases with nobody out. CF Bryson Parks was hit by a pitch, while 1B Sam Angelo added an RBI fielder's choice.

With the lead cut to 4-2, the Boulders broke the game wide open with five runs in a bottom of the eighth which featured LF Fritz Genther's RBI single, a two-run knock by Rosso, a bases loaded balk, and a ribby infield hit for SS Austin Dennis that put a bow on New York's seventh win this season against New Jersey without a loss.

Also of note:

* For the third straight game, every Boulders batter reached base at least once

* Genther highlighted his second straight start in LF with a sliding catch in the top of the sixth inning and a gun-down of Jackals 3B Sebastian Mueller trying to stretch a seventh inning single

The three-game series continues tomorrow (Saturday) evening with first pitch scheduled for 6:30pm EDT.
