

Boulders Drop Another to ‘Cats

Tri-City Scores Eight For Second Straight Night

August 13, 2025

Pomona, NY – The New York Boulders fell to the Tri-City ValleyCats, 8-2, after an hour and a half rain delay at Clover Stadium. The game was originally scheduled to be part of a doubleheader, but the nightcap was postponed until tomorrow, with Game One of Thursday’s twinbill scheduled to start at 5pm EDT.

New York (43-34) fell behind 1-0 in the top of the second when RHP Emmett Bice (L, 3-4 / 6 IP, 7 R, 4 ER, 6 H, 6 BB, 9 K) gave up three singles and a bases loaded walk.

The Boulders tied the game in the third, as SS Austin Dennis raced home on a bases loaded wild pitch by LHP Stephen Still (W, 10-3).

The ‘Cats (48-29) cracked the game open with a six-run top of the fourth, highlighted by CF Javeyan Williams’ three-run homer and a two-run double for C Chris Burgess, who greeted RHP Jordy Luciano with a leadoff homer in the seventh that made it 8-1.

The Boulders capped the scoring in the final frame on C Jason Agresti’s RBI single.

Also of note:

- * Dennis (1-for-3) and Agresti (2-for-3) both extended their hitting streaks to 15 games

- * Dennis has at least one hit in 20 of the Boulders’ 21 games since the Frontier League All-Star Break; he also leads the league with 115 hits and 80 runs scored

- * Bice struck out a career-high nine batters while issuing a career-high six walks

- * New York’s infield turned at least one double play for the 10th game in the last 11
