

Boulders Cooled Off by Ottawa

See Winning Streak Stopped at Three

May 13, 2026

Pomona, NY — The Boulders lost the middle of their three-game series at Clover Stadium to the Ottawa Titans on Wednesday night, 6-5, after leaving the bases loaded in the bottom of the eighth inning.

New York (3-2) grabbed a third inning lead on LF Dan Tauken's RBI single, then fell behind when Ottawa (3-2) got solo homers in the fourth and fifth off RHP Emmett Bice (ND / 4.2 IP, 2 R, 4 H, 2 BB, 4 K).

The Boulders didn't stay down for long, as RF Aaron Simmons (3-for-5) went deep for the second night in a row, with a go-ahead two-run blast in the bottom of the fifth to put the home team back in front, 3-2.

It would be 4-2 after 3B Norris McClure scored on an errant throw in the sixth, but the Titans grabbed the lead for good with four runs in the seventh before the Boulders got a run back in the bottom half on 1B Jason Agresti's RBI single.

Also of note:

- * SS Fritz Genter went 4-for-5 with three runs scored
- * CF John Schroeder reached base in all four of his plate appearances
- * Ottawa RHP Brett Garcia (Save #1) struck out four of the five batters he faced
