

And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. 2 Corinthians 9:8, NRSV

Beloved People of God,

Jesus assures us, “In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places.” John 14:2, NRSV
These words remind us that God’s abundance is spacious and generous. There is plenty good room in God’s household for each of us.

This year’s stewardship theme, Plenty Good Room, invites us to recognize the abundance God has already entrusted to us. Even in uncertain times, we are called to trust that there is enough: enough for our families, enough for our church, enough for our neighbors.

One way we live into this truth is by sharing our resources – our money, our time, and our talents – for the mission and ministry of this congregation. These gifts support worship that lifts our hearts, teaching that shapes disciples, fellowship that strengthens our bonds, and outreach that embodies Christ’s love.

Over the next several weeks, you will hear from leaders in our parish about Plenty Good Room and how our generosity makes a difference. Today I simply ask you to begin praying with this theme, reflecting on the resources God has placed in your care, and considering how you might share them joyfully in the year ahead.

Together, let us rejoice that there is always plenty good room in God’s house, and plenty good work for us to do.

Faithfully,

Fr. Vincent Black
Associate Rector

Helping People Live Generously

© 2026 The Episcopal Network for Stewardship (TENS). All rights reserved. Used with permission.