19TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

"Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." (Matthew 14:27)

"¡Ánimo! Soy yo, no tengan miedo." (Mateo 14:27)

Reflection:

In this Gospel passage, Jesus demonstrates His power over the chaos of the sea, symbolizing His authority over the fears and uncertainties in our lives. When Peter steps out of the boat and begins to sink, he calls out to Jesus, and immediately Jesus reaches out to save him. This story encourages us to keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, especially when life's challenges make us feel overwhelmed. Trusting in His presence and power allows us to walk through difficulties with courage and peace. Even when we falter, Jesus is there, ready to lift us up and strengthen our faith.

Socratic Question:

What are the "storms" in your life where you need to trust Jesus, and how can you focus more on Him than on your fears?

Reflexión:

En este pasaje del Evangelio, Jesús demuestra su poder sobre el caos del mar, simbolizando su autoridad sobre los temores e incertidumbres en nuestras vidas. Cuando Pedro sale del barco y comienza a hundirse, llama a Jesús, y de inmediato Jesús extiende su mano para salvarlo. Esta historia nos anima a mantener nuestra mirada fija en Jesús, especialmente cuando los desafíos de la vida nos hacen sentir abrumados. Confiar en su presencia y poder nos permite enfrentar las dificultades con valentía y paz. Incluso cuando fallamos, Jesús está ahí, listo para levantarnos y fortalecer nuestra fe.

Pregunta socrática:

¿Cuáles son las "tormentas" en tu vida donde necesitas confiar en Jesús, y cómo puedes enfocarte más en Él que en tus miedos?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

MATTHEW 14:22-33

In this passage, the disciples face a storm on the sea, and Jesus appears to them, walking on water. This extraordinary moment reveals Jesus' divine power and His desire to be present with us in our fears. Peter's initial courage to step out of the boat represents our willingness to trust Jesus, but when he becomes distracted by the storm, he begins to sink. This mirrors our own struggles when we focus on our problems rather than on Jesus. Yet, Jesus immediately reaches out to save Peter, reminding us that His love and support are always within reach. This story invites us to deepen our trust in Jesus, knowing He is always near, ready to calm our hearts with His peace.

Socratic Reflection:

How can you cultivate a habit of focusing on Jesus amidst life's storms rather than being overwhelmed by your circumstances?

MATEO 14:22-33

En este pasaje, los discípulos enfrentan una tormenta en el mar y Jesús se les aparece, caminando sobre el agua. Este momento extraordinario revela el poder divino de Jesús y su deseo de estar presente con nosotros en nuestros temores. El valor inicial de Pedro para salir del barco representa nuestra disposición a confiar en Jesús, pero cuando se distrae con la tormenta, comienza a hundirse. Esto refleja nuestras propias luchas cuando nos enfocamos en nuestros problemas en lugar de Jesús. Sin embargo, Jesús inmediatamente extiende su mano para salvar a Pedro, recordándonos que su amor y apoyo siempre están al alcance. Esta historia nos invita a profundizar nuestra confianza en Jesús, sabiendo que siempre está cerca, listo para calmar nuestros corazones con su paz.

Pregunta Socrática:

¿Cómo puedes cultivar el hábito de enfocarte en Jesús en medio de las tormentas de la vida en lugar de sentirte abrumado por tus circunstancias?

DID YOU KNOW...

19TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

On August 9, 1945, the United States dropped an atomic bomb on the Japanese city of Nagasaki during World War II, just three days after the bombing of Hiroshima. This event played a significant role in bringing an end to the war, as Japan announced its surrender six days later on August 15, 1945. The bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki are remembered for their devastating impact and the immense loss of life, sparking global discussions about the morality and future use of nuclear weapons.

This day serves as a powerful reminder of the importance of pursuing peace and reconciliation. As we reflect on this historical event, consider how we can contribute to a more peaceful world in our own lives. How do stories of conflict and resolution in history inspire you to be a peacebuilder in your community?

SAINT SPOTLIGHT

ST. LAWRENCE

Feast Day: August 10th

Patronage:

St. Lawrence is the patron saint of chefs, the poor, and firefighters.

Story: St. Lawrence was one of the seven deacons of Rome during the reign of Emperor Valerian in the third century. He was responsible for the care of the Church's treasures and distributing alms to the poor. When Emperor Valerian issued an edict for the execution of Christians, the Pope and many others were martyred. Lawrence was ordered to surrender the Church's treasures. Instead, he distributed them to the poor, declaring them as the true treasures of the Church.

For his defiance, Lawrence was martyred by being roasted on a gridiron. Despite the brutal execution, he famously prayed and even jested with his executioners, demonstrating extraordinary faith and courage.

Legacy: St. Lawrence's legacy resonates in his unwavering faith and his understanding of the true wealth of the Church—the poor and needy. His story exemplifies the values of charity, courage, and joyful witness to the faith even in the face of persecution. Lawrence's life teaches us to value the spiritual over the material and to stand firm in our faith no matter the trials.

Reflection Question: How can you, like St. Lawrence, recognize and nurture the true treasures in your life, viewing people rather than possessions as the true wealth?

KIDS CORNER

Feast Day: August 10th

Who was St. Lawrence?

St. Lawrence is the special saint for cooks, people who help the poor, and firefighters.

His Story:

A long time ago, in the third century, St. Lawrence was a special helper at the Church in Rome. He was in charge of taking care of the Church's treasures and giving money to those who needed it. The emperor at the time, Valerian, didn't like Christians and wanted all the Church's things. Instead of giving them to the emperor, St. Lawrence gave everything to the poor, saying they were the real treasures of the Church.

The emperor didn't like this, so he decided to punish St. Lawrence. When he was being punished, St. Lawrence was really brave and even joked with the people who were hurting him. He showed how much he loved Jesus and others by staying strong.

His Legacy:

St. Lawrence taught us that the most important treasures are not gold or silver but people who need our help. He showed us how important it is to share what we have with others and to stand up for what is right, even when it's hard.

Question to Think About:

How can you, like St. Lawrence, see people as the greatest treasures and share your kindness with them?
