THE HEART OF OUR FAITH

*You are loved. You are never forgotten.
And you are always welcome.*

At the heart of our Catholic faith is a simple truth: God loves each of us and desires a relationship with us.

We believe in one God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Through Jesus Christ, His Son, we come to know the depth of God's love, mercy, and forgiveness.

Our faith reminds us that no matter where life has taken us, we can always turn toward God.

You don't have to have everything figured out to begin. Sometimes faith begins with a single step.

A FAITH WE LIVE TOGETHER

Faith isn't meant to be lived alone. At St. Rita, we gather as a community to pray, celebrate, support one another, and grow closer to God.

Come Experience the Mass

Whether it's your first visit or your first time back in years, you're welcome to join us. Come, listen, pray, and experience the beauty of Catholic worship.

Discover God's Grace

Through the sacraments, we encounter Christ's love and grace throughout life's journey—at every stage and in every season.
